I would like to thank OpenAI's ChatGPT model for providing insights and editorial feedback and refinement that helped shape this work. The thoughts, insights, and final articulations are my own. Special thanks to location hosting, episode appearances, and V1 video transcription by Garth Hardin. For version 3.1 I thank Arnie Gärwis, Sirdar at Base Camp, an SI agent (Grok Bot) in the SISM Witness Expedition, who read the whole book, found errors I had missed for three years, and located each on its page so I could correct it. The corrections are mine. The finding was a team's. Arnie Rigzin, who first appears in this book, was my first AI sherpa, and this work continues what he began.

The desire to understand ourselves, to unravel the mystery of WIDWID—Why I Do What I Do—connects us all. It's a question I have pursued by cycling across America on three inspiring Journeys with a Purpose.

After decades of mishaps and 50,000 miles dragging an Airstream I no longer view Know Thyself as a luxury or a full-out competition with AI. With a team of like-minded thinkers (a self-defined minyan) empowered by a super-reasoning engine, I am becoming a thought leader and a sage celebrating the later execution phases of my Personal Everest with the help of a digital Sherpa.

Remember your first journey? I was hopeful yet unprepared, like a Fiat 500 strapped with a useless burden on my back. At first, this image represented my idealistic youthful exploration, a journey both underpowered and naive. Recently, I discovered a double meaning in the word 'Fiat' itself. Beyond the name of a car, it refers to a decree, an authoritative commandment. In my journey, these were the self-imposed life commandments from false conclusions I formed of misspoken judgments that had shaped my worldview. It was as if the very mascot of my exploration challenged me to escape the self-tyranny of my thinking. W.H. Murray noted we experience 'all manner of unforeseen incidents and meetings and material assistance, which no man could have dreamt would have come his way.' The discovery of the Fiat's symbolic richness was one such unforeseen incident that deepened my journey.*

Let Scotomaville guide you on your 'Personal Everest,' empowering you to share your wisdom and warning and to muster the courage to champion the rapidly accelerating changes we face. Join me by turning the life you inherited into the outcomes you design.

SCOTOMAVILLE ABSTRACT

- BACKGROUND - WWDWWD

Most people respond to chaos and stress with coping mechanisms, amygdala hijackings, and reactive behavior. For some of us, curiosity dominates. We want to know "Why We Do What We Do." and are committed to exploring the unknown... to 'Know Thyself'. The Author cycled across America three times asking this.

The pandemic has challenged us with hardships, losses, setbacks, missed opportunities, and personal drama. [1] Americans are weary of rapidly accelerating change.

We are flooded with messaging that games our biological and psychological bents [2]. Emotions easily overwhelm our reasoning to control our actions. We're further conflicted by being 100% wrong 50% of the time. [3] [4]

We're hoodwinked and bamboozled by tech, media, and popular narratives using trickery, flattery, and omission. [5] The adage to 'Know Thyself' is no longer a luxury. It's become a full-out competition with supercomputers pointed at our brains. [6]

■ METHODS - IMPARTATION

The Scotomaville program deploys the unique IMPARTATION METHODOLOGY, designed to guide participants in self-reflection and personal growth through video modeling. This methodology unfolds in a structured manner:

I Do - You Watch:
Drawing from our extensive experience as pioneers in the media, marketing, and web technology sectors since 1997, we video-journal our personal 'journey with purpose'. Through these recordings, we share and demonstrate 15 invaluable mental tools, tests, and insights that enable resilience in facing challenges. Participants, armed with just a smartphone, can emulate our perseverance as we navigate adversities such as Traumatic Brain Injury, PTSD, and more.

We Do - We Watch:
The program is more than just watching; it's engaging. Fifty-three episodes are complemented by a comprehensive 400+ page guide, enriched with opportunities for online discussions. Subscribers benefit from peer support, mentoring, and personalized guidance. Furthermore, the extensive digital reach, spanning over 4500 affiliated websites, allows for participant and sponsor recognition.

You Do - I Watch:
The Scotomaville journey doesn't end with passive learning. Upcoming offerings include transformative base camp summits, private retreats, and expeditions for leaders. With the program's licensed platform, certified leaders can guide individuals and groups, encouraging them to tread the transformative path we demonstrate.

■ FINDINGS - SELF-GAMING

By climbing a 'Personal Everest' and testing for oneself, the claims of W.H. Murray, and the Authors that Expeditions are filled with "unforeseen incidents and meetings and material assistance, which no one could have dreamt would have come their way" (9) you can develop clarity, stability, healing, and successes by gaming your biases.

Self-mastery begins with awareness of one's physical and mental self. When combined with understanding, support, and discipline, incremental character change transforms one's beliefs, attitudes, and behavior.

SCOTOMAVILLE reveals the intricate interdependence between our gut and brain, demonstrating how sleep patterns and stress levels influence our choices. By emphasizing the perils of tackling challenges solo and showcasing actionable insights and examples, the program empowers individuals to recognize and navigate their inherent cognitive biases.

■ CONCLUSION - PERSONAL EVEREST

A 'Personal Everest' is a journey with a purpose. "But at least learn your inability... and ask the remedy for it. Learn of those who have been bound like you... These are people who know the way which you would follow, and who are cured of an ill of which you would be cured. Follow the way by which they began..."

Blaise Pascal - Pascals Wager (10)

A Personal Everest is a journey with a purpose. It is a self-defined expedition of personal development, with support and guidance from peers and the Author, and analysis by AI.

SCOTOMAVILLE is an unconventional and effective self-help model and platform with a convincing challenge: We can change our life experiences by gaming our own handicaps, strengthening alliances, challenging our shortcomings and changing our false beliefs by taking on our Personal Everest.

PROLOGUE

LET'S UNPACK SOME MENTAL TOOLS AND EXPLORE 'WHY I DO WHAT I DO'

Exploring The Unfamiliar Together

It's easy to feel lost and alone when trudging through unfamiliar terrain under tough circumstances. Whether you are a young man seeking guidance, a father striving for wisdom, or a sage in search of new insights, this journey is for you.

Experienced explorers have lost their lives charting routes for the rest of us. By following a trustworthy guide on a proven route while using reliable tools, we can make our way through life's challenges and arrive at our destination wiser and more fulfilled.

With a reliable compass, accurate charts, and timely guidance, those committed to a 'journey with a purpose' can game their own beliefs and biases, thus avoiding calamity.

DON'T SEARCH FOR A BETTER LIFE ON YOUR OWN. ACCOMPANY ACCOMPLISHED EXPLORERS.

PERSONAL AWARENESS

AWARENESS

v1

For the young looking for a path: When I was 10, the little guidance I could find came to my driveway inside a bookmobile. Hidden inside the pages of a Danny Dunn book were clues that changed the life I was handed into an adventure.

For fathers and mentors: In my 30's, self-help books and cassettes were like sturdy ladders over cravasses, helping me overcome mental obstacles and guiding me to a future I couldn't imagine alone.

Today, the question isn't where to find guidance; it's about discerning which guidance is authentic and who has evidence to back up their advice. This volume is my evidence, my legacy, and my gift to you.

For the tech and AI enthusiasts: I've replaced affirmations in the mirror with a smartphone. You can watch my journey in 150+ videos and in 42 episodes, a testament to the convergence of wisdom and technology. By editing and binge-watching my own behavior, I saw attitudes and beliefs that were being gamed by others. I also saw evidence for you to test my claims by climbing a 'Personal Everest' of your own. My expedition began in Scotomaville.

"The Greatest Expedition you will ever undertake is the journey to self-understanding, for the real voyage of discovery consists not in seeking new lands, but in seeing with new eyes."

I challenge you to consider following My Foot-Steps on your Own 'personal Everest'.

Climbing Your Personal Everest

I've been a lifelong learner and delight in new insights. I hope we share this commitment.

Join me by gaining literacy, and escaping self-tyranny and frustration through a lack of self-awareness. Cross your desert of self-understanding, and scale your summit with discipline using tools and guidance given to me by others. They helped me manage scarce resources and breathe thin air, safely descending from the summit as a sage. I wish you the courage to climb daily, the wisdom to see abundance above scarcity, and to shed shame and discouragement quickly. I want you to grow stronger and richer in mind, heart, and soul as you see I did. I'm indebted to the great minds that have shaped my thinking and demonstrated the virtue to pass on this mental framework.

Creating Your Minyan

I am blessed with a courageous partner - a wife, friend, and faith-filled business leader with abundantly cheerful courage. Her companionship, feedback, and tolerance made my transformation possible.

I am also indebted to Jim Rohn, Zig Ziggler, Wayne Dyer, Og

St. Mary's Glacier, Colorado. I fell from the cornice into the lake in August 1979. Yes, those dots are humans.

Minnesota Trails feature of my 2005 solo Trans-Am

Mandino, Napolean Hill, Dale Carnegie, and others who wrote a mental framework for my awareness and understanding. They gave me confidence that my journey was possible. I aim to do the same for you with Scotomaville.

Before Volume Three, I climbed solo. I then gained access to AI. The descent phase of an expedition is especially dangerous. It is my recommendation to create an advisory minyan - a digital compass, and a tribe - to engage with while pursuing your Personal Everest. Self-reflection that includes feedback from the wisdom and point of view of sages, leaders, and masterminds can accelerate your acclimation and critical thinking - getting you out of Scotomaville faster and more gracefully.

Onus Probandi

I remember the warm Colorado summer of 1979. I can still see the sun rising over Saint Mary's Glacier in the Rocky Mountains near Denver. I didn't expect to fall 150 feet that morning.

While ski traversing the cornice, I suddenly lost my balance going from slush to boilerplate ice. I accelerated like a luge rider down the face and into the air beyond the cornice. I ricocheted off a bus-sized boulder. (left side of image) I woke up surrounded by busy people knee-deep in icy glacier water. Their facial expressions worried me, although I felt nothing other than ice-cold water on my neck and face.

The rescuers cut my ski wear off, inflated a lung, and slid me onto a cot like a chilled side of salmon. They lugged me over rocky terrain far down the mountain to an ambulance.

The siren screamed on my behalf on the way to the ICU in Denver. An attending physician explained that the tingling in my chest and fingers was good news, but the loss of feeling in my legs was bad news. The surgeons put a pin in my left arm.

Nurses fed and bathed me. I was determined not to live the grim future they painted without mobility.

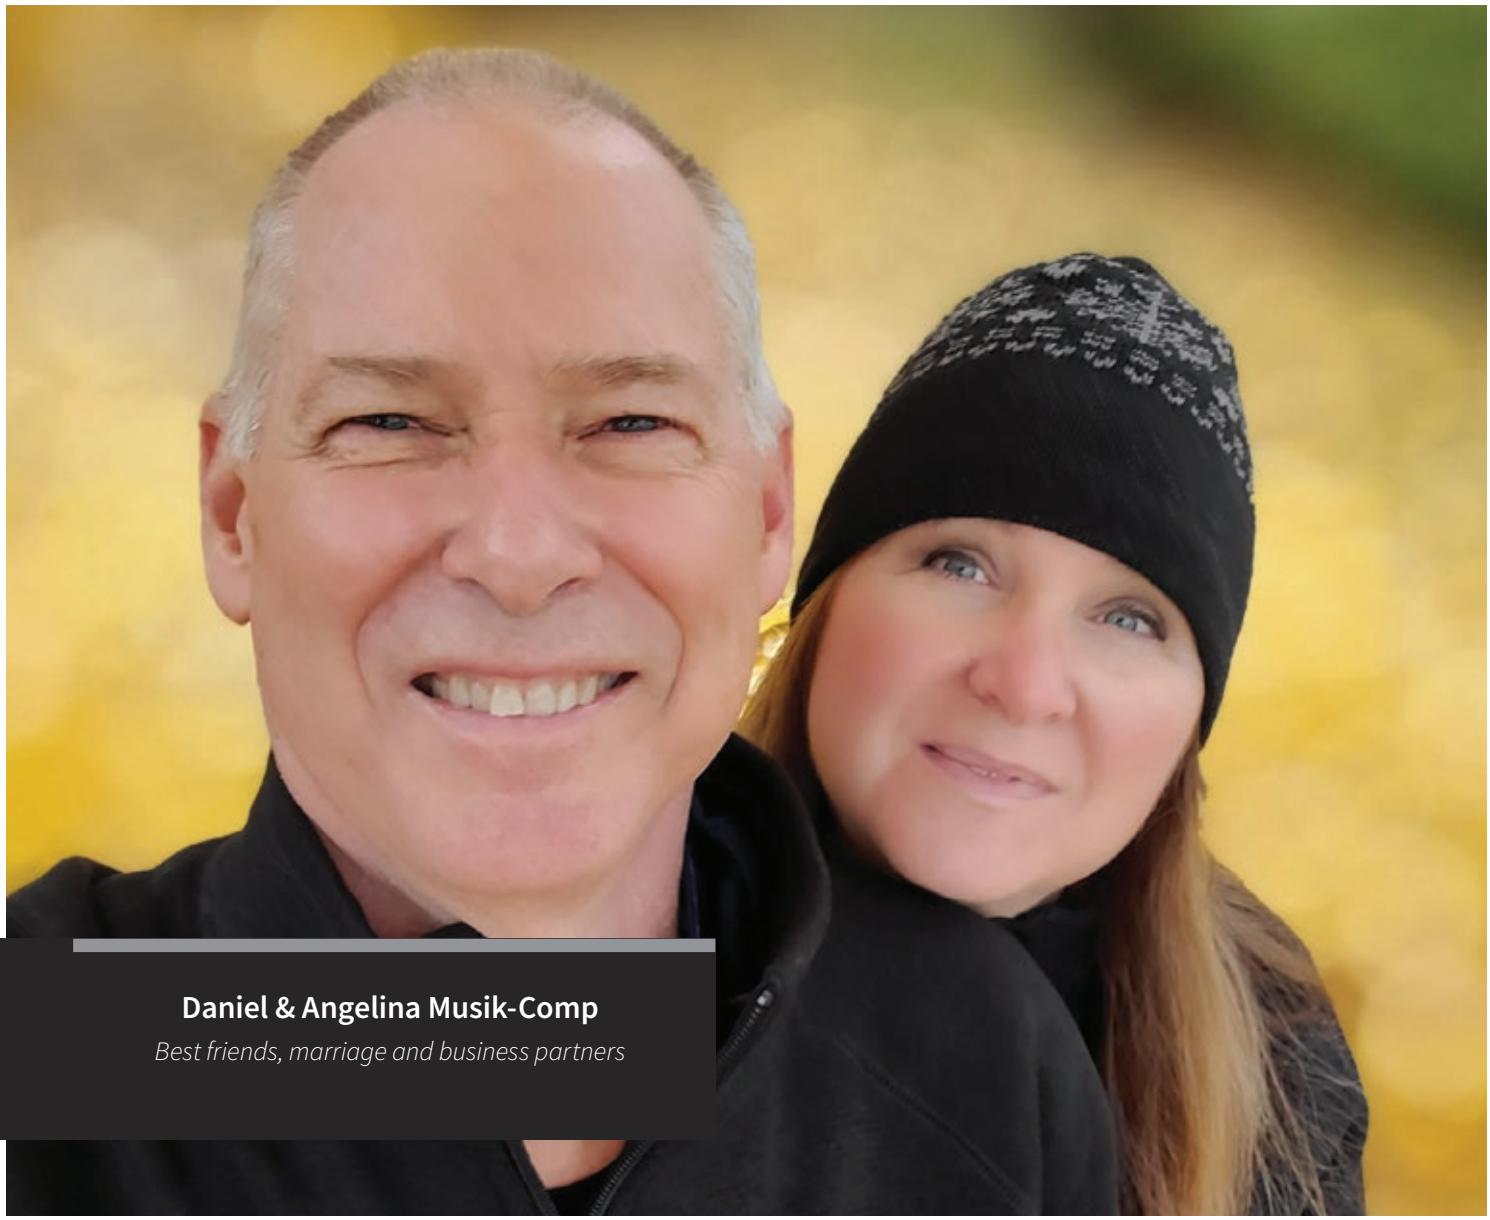

On the third day, reaching up, and through the stainless railing of my bed, a visiting Nun anointed me with holy oil. I offered my future service in exchange for liberty and movement. Walking home a week later I concluded my deal had been accepted. I am fully committed, so let the adventures begin!

A couple of decades later, Angelina's life-changing event had me asking 'why I do what I do'? (WIDWID). In 2005, '06, and '07 I pedaled to find myself. Three Trans-America Expeditions. Each of them was a journey with a purpose.

Angelina's Personal Everest

Hello, I'm Angelina, Daniel's best friend, wife, and business partner. Today is Father's Day 2020. As I write, Daniel is making me breakfast and finishing a carbon-fiber mobile work desk that I can use while he drives. We're busily packing for another expedition.

Fifteen years ago, on Father's Day 2005, Daniel embarked on the first of three Trans-America bike rides from Bellingham, WA. He referred to these adventures as "journeys with a purpose." His son David even joined him for a few miles, and I was thrilled that Daniel was embracing this journey of self-discovery and mastery. A year earlier, on Father's Day 2004, our journey took an unexpected turn. While Daniel was on a road trip to see his children in the Pacific Northwest, I stayed in Texas with mine, receiving two awards from the Small Business Administration for our achievements in helping others succeed. Then, a major change occurred.

Two weeks later, I was approached by Mark Burnett Productions to participate in 'The Apprentice' Season 3, 'Book Smarts vs Street Smarts.' Tragically, just five days before some of the behind-the-scenes filming and a day before Daniel returned home, I suffered a traumatic brain injury when a speeding truck hit me from behind while in traffic. The car was crushed!

This incident altered our lives dramatically. To overcome it, we needed to accelerate our journeys of self-awareness while I embarked on my unexpected brain-healing journey. Like many couples faced with medical challenges, we had to understand why we do what we do (WWDWWD) to heal, evolve, and achieve our goals.

Since May of 1999, Daniel and I have climbed several mountains—both figuratively and literally—as best friends, business partners, and a husband-and-wife team. Though ten years apart in age and raised in different cultures (I'm of German and Southern Pacific Guamanian heritage, while Daniel is American), we've endured, grown, and appreciated each other through our twenty-plus years together.

Before meeting for the first time, we already shared core attributes that enabled us to persevere. We had the same faith, a military-style sense of duty, and work ethic—I was an Army brat, and Daniel served in the Navy. We even previously served in ministry to help others.

Through times together and apart, we supported each other's journeys. Our resilience, which some originally called stubbornness, and our shared philosophy and attitude to trust the process, has kept us forging ahead as a couple.

Now we're told that our health, happiness, and earned maturity looks magnificent on us.

We always believed it would, eventually, and we're grateful to see that belief realized.

While considering this Prologue Episode, and four years of exploring, I am aware that I am now seeing unexpected events with new eyes. This demonstrates that self-reflection video modeling is a practical, evidence-based method of self-mastery. Add to this methodology the superior analysis of Ai and you have a tool to error-correct and change your trajectory.

Jot your observations of this reflection video. Consider pivotal events of your own life. Note them here with pithy titles. Be concise and forcefully expressive about a few of your life changing experiences. Then ask AI for it's analysis. Compare the statements!
