AN INTERACTIVE - AI GUIDED - SELF-MASTERY EXPEDITION FOR LEAVING

SCOTOMAVILLE

The desire to understand ourselves, to unravel the mystery of WIDWID—Why I Do What I Do—connects us all. It’s a question I have pursued by cycling across America on three inspiring Journeys with a Purpose.

After decades of mishaps and 50,000 miles dragging an Airstream I no longer view Know Thyself as a luxury or a full-out competition with AI. With a team of like-minded thinkers (a self-defined minyan) empowered by a super-reasoning engine, I am becoming a thought leader and a sage celebrating the later execution phases of my Personal Everest with the help of a digital Sherpa.

Remember your first journey? I was hopeful yet unprepared, like a Fiat 500 strapped with a useless burden on my back. At first, this image represented my idealistic youthful exploration, a journey both underpowered and naive. Recently, I discovered a double meaning in the word ‘Fiat’ itself. Beyond the name of a car, it refers to a decree, an authoritative commandment. In my journey, these were the self-imposed life commandments from false conclusions I formed of misspoken judgments that had shaped my worldview. It was as if the very mascot of my exploration challenged me to escape the self-tyranny of my thinking. W.H. Murray noted we experience ‘all manner of unforeseen incidents and meetings and material assistance, which no man could have dreamt would have come his way.’ The discovery of the Fiat’s symbolic richness was one such unforeseen incident that deepened my journey.

Let Scotomaville guide you on your ‘Personal Everest,’ empowering you to share your wisdom and warning and to muster the courage to champion the rapidly accelerating changes we face. Join me by turning the life you inherited into the outcomes you design.

SCOTOMAVILLE ABSTRACT

■ BACKGROUND - WWDWWD

Most people respond to chaos and stress with coping mechanisms, amygdala hijackings, and reactive behavior. For some of us, curiosity dominates. We want to know “Why We Do What We Do.” and are committed to exploring the unknown... to ‘Know Thyself’. The Author cycled across America three times asking this.

The pandemic has challenged us with hardships, losses, setbacks, missed opportunities, and personal drama. ⁽¹⁾ Americans are weary of rapidly accelerating change.

We are flooded with messaging that games our biological and psychological bents ⁽²⁾. Emotions easily overwhelm our reasoning to control our actions. We’re further conflicted by being 100% wrong 50% of the time. ⁽³⁾ ⁽⁴⁾

We’re hoodwinked and bamboozled by tech, media, and popular narratives using trickery, flattery, and omission. ⁽⁵⁾ The adage to ‘Know Thyself’ is no longer a luxury. It’s become a full-out competition with supercomputers pointed at our brains. ⁽⁶⁾

■ METHODS - IMPARTATION

The Scotomaville program deploys the unique IMPARTATION METHODOLOGY, designed to guide participants in self-reflection and personal growth through video modeling. This methodology unfolds in a structured manner:

I Do - You Watch:

Drawing from our extensive experience as pioneers in the media, marketing, and web technology sectors since 1997, we video-journal our personal ‘journey with purpose’. Through these recordings, we share and demonstrate 15 invaluable mental tools, tests, and insights that enable resilience in facing challenges. Participants, armed with just a smartphone, can emulate our perseverance as we navigate adversities such as Traumatic Brain Injury, PTSD, and more.

We Do - We Watch:

The program is more than just watching; it’s engaging. Fifty-three episodes are complemented by a comprehensive 400+ page guide, enriched with opportunities for online discussions. Subscribers benefit from peer support, mentoring, and personalized guidance. Furthermore, the extensive digital reach, spanning over 4500 affiliated websites, allows for participant and sponsor recognition.

You Do - I Watch:

The Scotomaville journey doesn’t end with passive learning. Upcoming offerings include transformative base camp summits, private retreats, and expeditions for leaders. With the program’s licensed platform, certified leaders can guide individuals and groups, encouraging them to tread the transformative path we demonstrate.

■ FINDINGS - SELF-GAMING

By climbing a ‘Personal Everest’ and testing for oneself, the claims of W.H. Murray, and the Authors that Expeditions are filled with “unforeseen incidents and meetings and material assistance, which no one could have dreamt would have come their way” ⁽⁹⁾ you can develop clarity, stability, healing, and successes by gaming your biases.

Self-mastery begins with awareness of one’s physical and mental self. When combined with understanding, support, and discipline, incremental character change transforms one’s beliefs, attitudes, and behavior.

SCOTOMAVILLE reveals the intricate interdependence between our gut and brain, demonstrating how sleep patterns and stress levels influence our choices. By emphasizing the perils of tackling challenges solo and showcasing actionable insights and examples, the program empowers individuals to recognize and navigate their inherent cognitive biases.

■ CONCLUSION - PERSONAL EVEREST

A ‘Personal Everest’ is a journey with a purpose. “But at least learn your inability... and ask the remedy for it. Learn of those who have been bound like you... These are people who know the way which you would follow, and who are cured of an ill of which you would be cured. Follow the way by which they began...”

Blaise Pascal - Pascals Wager ⁽¹⁰⁾

A Personal Everest is a journey with a purpose. It is a self-defined expedition of personal development, with support and guidance from peers and the Author, and analysis by AI.

SCOTOMAVILLE is an unconventional and effective self-help model and platform with a convincing challenge: We can change our life experiences by gaming our own handicaps, strengthening alliances, challenging our shortcomings and changing our false beliefs by taking on our Personal Everest.

IT NEEDS WORK

VOL 1 AWARENESS

Our best opportunities usually show up looking like hard work. Don't miss a chance to mature.

Leaving Scotomaville is not about where you end up. It's about learning who you are, by using multiple tools to overcoming present challenges.

You don't have to think long to recall the last opportunity for hard work you declined. It's tough to do the hard thing, let alone be eager. And yet, this is what achievers do.

Imagine creating a video and print trilogy during the pandemic in a space the size of a bathroom? Yeah, you're reading it.

You have the power within you to design a life! Don't settle. Turn what you were handed into something to be proud of.

The reward for making your bed? It's not about having a clean, organized, poofy bed! The prize is that you affirm your will and determination to continue your ascent toward self-mastery.

I once had a fabulous opportunity to be mentored by John Kalench. John founded 'Millionaires In Motion.' I was in San Diego with him at one of the events. There were about a dozen multi-millionaires around the table. Reading this in hindsight chokes me up as John pointed out something small that I didn't quite understand at the time what he meant.

He said, "Daniel, look around the table. These guys wish they were where you are now - with an opportunity to go for their dreams again - because they miss the journey. They're all rich, yet they can't re-experience climbing out of ignorance to become abundant."

John also said, "Daniel, look around the table, tell me what you see?" And I said, "A bunch of nice guys." And he said, "No, no, no, what do you see different?" Eventually, I figured it out. I was the only one that had a beard, a scruffle. John said, "There's a clue." I was perplexed. 'What? You can't have a beard if you're rich?'

Eventually, I figured out that he didn't mean that you can't have a beard. Instead, he suggested that I shouldn't give up the opportunity to shave - not merely to be clean-shaven - but to value the self-time in the mirror aiming at who I would become. The same goes with isolation during a pandemic or in a jail cell or a hospital, or while living out of your car. You can change who you will be at any time!

"Failure will never overtake me if my determination to succeed is strong enough." Og Mandino

The point John was making was that I was missing the real opportunity to find out who I am. My youthful idealism didn't see that even if you are wealthy, and can't buy another expedition out of Scotomaville. It's a one-way trip. Aim well.

Likewise, cleaning a bowl or a sink may seem trivial, but not when it's time invested with yourself. It's time to learn who you are and where you want to go with your character.

Getting out of Scotomaville is not about where you end up. It's about the journey of sorting yourself out, and aiming at who you will become. Get it?

Making breakfast and cutting grapefruit, those things are not about fancy scrambled eggs with garnish. You're missing the point - that's a scotoma. Cutting grapefruit is not about avoiding your finger; it's about aiming your attention at thoughts going through your head. Isolation has value for recognizing who you are becoming and what you still have to work on while celebrating that you've come far, and recommitting to finish the journey.

A simple way to say this: don't miss an opportunity to do the hard thing. Don't settle for a shortcut. Don't leave it - 'ahh, good enough.' Don't pass an opportunity to do the hard thing!

"Don't wish it were easier, wish you were better. Don't wish for fewer problems, wish for more skills. Don't wish for less challenge, wish for more wisdom."

Jim Rohn

"sustained smart work always overcomes bad luck and heritage"

Here's a current event to drive home my point. I'm recording this on week five of the lockdown. I committed to creating Scotomaville in a 19-foot Airstream. Five weeks ago, we came to the north of Phoenix to pick up our 30-foot Airstream. I'm regularly fighting the thought that, geez, if I just had the 30 foot then this would be sooo much easier. If I only I had...

REFRAMING MY EXCUSE

I have to re-frame my excuse - Daniel; this is not about needs. It's about seizing the opportunity to do something challenging, the mental reframing work. It's not about what I want; it's about utilizing what I have. It's about recognizing and putting to work this chance - now in my hands, where I'm at - so that others can mimic and follow from where they have to start.

 Daniel, your mindset is one that many can relate to, especially in times of constraint or adversity. It challenges us to reflect on what we truly need and to find contentment and creativity within our current means, rather than longing for what we don't have.

Look at the bottom of Maslow's classic hierarchy. It describes survival. Getting by is normal, but it's not something that creates pride because living there borders on dependency. You're tempted to mask life there with pharmaceuticals and government handouts and regret.

By seizing a challenge to do something tough, unfamiliar and hard, we gain confidence to climb upward. Working the need presented moves us to the next challenge. Don't miss the chance with what's in your hand.

That is what God said to Moses. Moses complained that he stuttered, and had only a stick and some sheep. God turned his stick into a snake to point out it's not what Moses could do, rather what God could do with Moses. It was about history recording the events which would unfold following his full commitment.

You might not expect that I have served in the Navy, in ministry, and international economic development. I've been an entrepreneur for 48 years. Yet, I have spent over 15 years sleeping on cots and in bunks and on mattresses on the floor, and in sleeping bags, in tents and vehicles, and anything but a home.

EXPLANATORY KNOWLEDGE

I've bought the story of a higher calling and purpose. Authoring and curating Scotomaville is a mission with an imagined outcome that gives my life meaning and value. My future-self is giving my daughter a copy of this book at her wedding. I imagine my grandchildren understanding my journey and taking on their own. Our prefrontal cortex allows us to tell ourselves stories to do things that other people think are crazy!

So gaming ourselves is my thesis. Summiting awareness by purposefully hacking my beliefs is the way!

"Follow the way by which we began"

Again, the original Maslow's hierarchy said we needed to take care of our basic needs - food, shelter, and clothing before we could become actualized. We couldn't find purpose in life without meeting our basic needs, but there's been an upgrade to the classic view.

It's better illustrated horizontally, where you can pursue multiple layers simultaneously. So while you're locked down, not sure about your income, not sure about keeping your job or house, you can pursue meaning, purpose, and actualization simultaneously! You're not limited to a vertical ascent, you see?

Still too Idealistic? Alright, scotoma. Ready?

Look right here under my water bottle, do you see? There's this little tool right here. AHA! Scotoma! The factory installed it, and I JUST found it. Maslow's horizontal hierarchy is a factory-installed tool.

Likewise, we have a prefrontal cortex at the front of our brain that can do extraordinary things. For example, a dog can worry a bone, but a human can use explanatory knowledge to talk about the sun the dog lays beneath. The sun is a burning ball of gas we call a star, one of a hundred billion in our galaxy, and there are trillions of them across the universe. As with our gut microbes or the neurons in our brain, we control the narrative. We can imagine our future-self, create dopamine, and be motivated to do the hard work. We can create explanations with stories. We have that gift in our brain, just like this multi-tool in my bike frame.

So don't just be a lazy dog worrying on a bone. Don't let your emotions run away because you need this or that BEFORE COMMITTING! Don't give in!

OK. I'm over-chewing it, but it's essential and fabulous.

Don't miss an opportunity to shave, clean a bowl, slice grapefruit, get dressed, make a bed. Don't miss a chance to prove that you have what it takes to make a difference. Your voice doesn't have to be locked in your head by the scotoma that you're living! Escape self-tyranny! You're appreciated!

Get out of Scotomaville!

Doing the hard mental work is a choice.

I'm certain you have many experiences where opportunity passed by looking like impossible work. Anthony Robbins hears from his wealthy clients that regret is more painful than effort.

DISCUSS

John Kalench told to my face; value your journey out of ignorance as wealth, as something millionaires can not do twice.

Don't go it alone. Share your rich insights with other explorers and me.

“Scotomaville” takes readers on an introspective journey into personal development. Through a seamless blend of philosophical dialogues, allegorical narratives, and psychological concepts, the book weaves an engaging exploration that appeals to both the mind and the heart. The author adeptly delves into themes such as perception, self-mastery, and the hero’s journey, showcasing a profound grasp of psychological processes and their influence on human behavior. For those navigating the complexities of personal growth, the trilogy offers a transformative odyssey, illustrating that resilience and self-discovery are universal quests that resonate with individuals seeking to overcome inner challenges and doubts.

This trilogy serves as a reflection for military veterans and first responders, echoing their sacrifices, camaraderie, and sense of purpose. The themes of adversity, seeking guidance, and embracing healing closely align with their experiences, providing a source of inspiration for those who have selflessly protected and served others.

For patriots and believers who hold their values dear, the trilogy presents character-driven narratives that mirror their dedication to higher principles. Exploring community, unity, and personal growth, the books align with their desire to positively contribute to society and reinforce the significance of collective well-being.

Fatherless individuals and young explorers identify with the trilogy’s portrayal of quests for identity and meaning. The characters’ journeys from uncertainty to self-assuredness reflect the universal process of finding one’s place in the world, motivating young minds to navigate life’s puzzles with courage and determination.

Moreover, experts in fields from psychology and storytelling to stoic and biblical philosophy will appreciate the trilogy’s profound concepts interwoven with relatable narratives. The author’s mastery is evident in crafting a work that appeals to intellectual and emotional sensibilities alike.

Throughout the trilogy, Daniel’s transformation serves as a relatable and inspiring narrative. His evolution from a curious seeker hindered by cognitive biases to a self-aware individual confronting inner doubts resonates deeply with readers.

In a world valuing personal growth, camaraderie, service, purpose, and self-discovery, the Scotomaville Trilogy stands as proof of storytelling’s power to connect, inspire, and transform. Its pages offer lessons, insights, and reflections embracing the shared human experience, making it an essential read for individuals from all walks of life. In conclusion, the trilogy’s rich philosophical discussions, relatable character arcs, and insightful exploration of cognitive biases contribute significantly to the fields of psychology and personal development.

Please express any correlation between my list of strengths, and a robust list of human virtues. Analyze the union of the two for shared characteristics and a deeper meaning.

Certainly! Let’s look at the intersection between the specific strengths from the Clifton StrengthsFinder that you provided (Achiever, Input, Learner, Activator, Belief) and a traditional list of virtues such as wisdom, courage, humanity, justice, temperance, and transcendence.

ACHIEVER

Virtue Correlation: Courage, Justice

Explanation: Achievers have a constant drive for accomplishing tasks. This can correlate with the virtue of courage, which involves persistence and vitality, and justice, where hard work and fairness contribute to the overall good of the community.

INPUT

Virtue Correlation: Wisdom

Explanation: People with the Input strength have a craving to know more, collecting and archiving information. This resonates with wisdom, which is characterized by a pursuit of knowledge and insightful judgment.

LEARNER

Virtue Correlation: Wisdom, Humanity

Explanation: A constant desire to improve and learn aligns with the virtue of wisdom. It may also align with humanity if the learning is directed towards understanding others and improving social bonds.

ACTIVATOR

Virtue Correlation: Courage, Justice

Explanation: Activators are inclined to take action and want to make things happen. This aligns with courage, as it requires the boldness to initiate, and justice, where action may be directed towards equality and fairness.

BELIEF

Virtue Correlation: Transcendence, Justice

Explanation: The Belief strength is connected to core values and purpose. It aligns with transcendence, where there is a connection to something greater, and justice, where values often include fairness and equality.

Summary of Union (Intersection):

The union between these strengths and virtues reveals a strong emphasis on wisdom (through Input and Learner), courage (through Achiever and Activator), and justice (through Achiever, Activator, and Belief). The values of humanity and transcendence are also present but to a lesser extent.

This analysis suggests that a person with these strengths might be particularly well-suited for roles that require insightful judgment, bold action, and a strong sense of fairness and values. They may excel in leadership roles, educational fields, advocacy, or any area where wisdom, courage, and justice are paramount.

I highly recommend Daniel and his wife, Angelina."

2x Awarded by U.S. Small Business Administration, TV/Radio Host/Speaker, a fabulous business partner, wife and my best friend. "I've witnessed Daniel's evolution from a wounded, angry man into a mentally and emotionally mature gentleman. He leads other men with competence and confidence from his own transformation and experience."

Charlie Duke

"As an Astronaut (Apollo 16 Lunar Module Pilot & 10th man on the Moon). I was very familiar with powerful planes and rockets. I've learned to trust my life and business on great tools and competent people. Daniel and Angelina have put together an amazing system for small business that is technically advanced, yet doesn't take a rocket scientist to run it. I highly recommend their services - I didn't settle for anything less!"

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I'm deeply appreciative to those who have invested time, emotion and resources for me to devour. For the encouragement, mental support and feedback, thank you. You have been generous with interest, influence and guidance over decades. For those that journeyed before me, I am indebted to your bravery and demonstration of faith, perseverance and grit.

To all of you, I wish awareness and grace.

To Angelina Musik-Comp:

I am deeply grateful for your stamina, patience, and support as my best friend and business partner. We have traveled the curves together in good cheer. You are amazingly resilient and a joyful character to explore with. I am grateful for your gift of HEALING matching my expression of UNDERSTANDING!

To you, the reader, and participant:

When I imagined this project, I had a hunch the cost would be years of commitment - but not five years. What you might not imagine is that it took me far less time and angst to create the Wellness by Choice syndication, and the Scotomaville syndication of nearly twenty five thousand websites. And now we have AI.

I believe “The Greatest Expedition you will ever undertake is the journey to self-understanding, for the real voyage of discovery consists not in seeking new lands, but in seeing with new eyes.”. Fortunately AI still lacks subjective experiences, emotions, and self-reflective awareness - and thus our superpower of story-telling may yet be an error correcting trim-tab for super intelligent reasoning engines.

Cheers to YOUR Greatest Expedition!
