AN INTERACTIVE - AI GUIDED - SELF-MASTERY EXPEDITION FOR LEAVING

SCOTOMAVILLE

The desire to understand ourselves, to unravel the mystery of WIDWID—Why I Do What I Do—connects us all. It’s a question I have pursued by cycling across America on three inspiring Journeys with a Purpose.

After decades of mishaps and 50,000 miles dragging an Airstream I no longer view Know Thyself as a luxury or a full-out competition with AI. With a team of like-minded thinkers (a self-defined minyan) empowered by a super-reasoning engine, I am becoming a thought leader and a sage celebrating the later execution phases of my Personal Everest with the help of a digital Sherpa.

Remember your first journey? I was hopeful yet unprepared, like a Fiat 500 strapped with a useless burden on my back. At first, this image represented my idealistic youthful exploration, a journey both underpowered and naive. Recently, I discovered a double meaning in the word ‘Fiat’ itself. Beyond the name of a car, it refers to a decree, an authoritative commandment. In my journey, these were the self-imposed life commandments from false conclusions I formed of misspoken judgments that had shaped my worldview. It was as if the very mascot of my exploration challenged me to escape the self-tyranny of my thinking. W.H. Murray noted we experience ‘all manner of unforeseen incidents and meetings and material assistance, which no man could have dreamt would have come his way.’ The discovery of the Fiat’s symbolic richness was one such unforeseen incident that deepened my journey.

Let Scotomaville guide you on your ‘Personal Everest,’ empowering you to share your wisdom and warning and to muster the courage to champion the rapidly accelerating changes we face. Join me by turning the life you inherited into the outcomes you design.

SCOTOMAVILLE ABSTRACT

■ BACKGROUND - WWDWWD

Most people respond to chaos and stress with coping mechanisms, amygdala hijackings, and reactive behavior. For some of us, curiosity dominates. We want to know “Why We Do What We Do.” and are committed to exploring the unknown... to ‘Know Thyself’. The Author cycled across America three times asking this.

The pandemic has challenged us with hardships, losses, setbacks, missed opportunities, and personal drama. ⁽¹⁾ Americans are weary of rapidly accelerating change.

We are flooded with messaging that games our biological and psychological bents ⁽²⁾. Emotions easily overwhelm our reasoning to control our actions. We’re further conflicted by being 100% wrong 50% of the time. ⁽³⁾ ⁽⁴⁾

We’re hoodwinked and bamboozled by tech, media, and popular narratives using trickery, flattery, and omission. ⁽⁵⁾ The adage to ‘Know Thyself’ is no longer a luxury. It’s become a full-out competition with supercomputers pointed at our brains. ⁽⁶⁾

■ METHODS - IMPARTATION

The Scotomaville program deploys the unique IMPARTATION METHODOLOGY, designed to guide participants in self-reflection and personal growth through video modeling. This methodology unfolds in a structured manner:

I Do - You Watch:

Drawing from our extensive experience as pioneers in the media, marketing, and web technology sectors since 1997, we video-journal our personal ‘journey with purpose’. Through these recordings, we share and demonstrate 15 invaluable mental tools, tests, and insights that enable resilience in facing challenges. Participants, armed with just a smartphone, can emulate our perseverance as we navigate adversities such as Traumatic Brain Injury, PTSD, and more.

We Do - We Watch:

The program is more than just watching; it’s engaging. Fifty-three episodes are complemented by a comprehensive 400+ page guide, enriched with opportunities for online discussions. Subscribers benefit from peer support, mentoring, and personalized guidance. Furthermore, the extensive digital reach, spanning over 4500 affiliated websites, allows for participant and sponsor recognition.

You Do - I Watch:

The Scotomaville journey doesn’t end with passive learning. Upcoming offerings include transformative base camp summits, private retreats, and expeditions for leaders. With the program’s licensed platform, certified leaders can guide individuals and groups, encouraging them to tread the transformative path we demonstrate.

■ FINDINGS - SELF-GAMING

By climbing a ‘Personal Everest’ and testing for oneself, the claims of W.H. Murray, and the Authors that Expeditions are filled with “unforeseen incidents and meetings and material assistance, which no one could have dreamt would have come their way” ⁽⁹⁾ you can develop clarity, stability, healing, and successes by gaming your biases.

Self-mastery begins with awareness of one’s physical and mental self. When combined with understanding, support, and discipline, incremental character change transforms one’s beliefs, attitudes, and behavior.

SCOTOMAVILLE reveals the intricate interdependence between our gut and brain, demonstrating how sleep patterns and stress levels influence our choices. By emphasizing the perils of tackling challenges solo and showcasing actionable insights and examples, the program empowers individuals to recognize and navigate their inherent cognitive biases.

■ CONCLUSION - PERSONAL EVEREST

A ‘Personal Everest’ is a journey with a purpose. “But at least learn your inability... and ask the remedy for it. Learn of those who have been bound like you... These are people who know the way which you would follow, and who are cured of an ill of which you would be cured. Follow the way by which they began...”

Blaise Pascal - Pascals Wager ⁽¹⁰⁾

A Personal Everest is a journey with a purpose. It is a self-defined expedition of personal development, with support and guidance from peers and the Author, and analysis by AI.

SCOTOMAVILLE is an unconventional and effective self-help model and platform with a convincing challenge: We can change our life experiences by gaming our own handicaps, strengthening alliances, challenging our shortcomings and changing our false beliefs by taking on our Personal Everest.

NO LESS THAN 3 BASE-LINES ARE ESSENTIAL FOR REASONABLE PROGRESS

COMMENCEMENT BAY AND SCOTOMAVILLE

By separating real facts from false ideas and understanding what's truly important, you can approach your biggest challenges with confidence using this helpful mental technique. It's like using a basic method from navigation to ease your fears and make those around you feel more assured and determined.

For instance, think about how the concept of 'triangulation' could apply to real-world problems like the ones faced during the pandemic lockdown. We chose to give up buying our Airstream to pay contractors and continue serving our clients. We lost our anticipated base camp and office, but we didn't lose our resolve. We prepared for the next opportunity.

DEDICATION AND PERSISTENCE

MADE BY LOOKING AT THINGS FROM DIFFERENT ANGLES

Triangulation as a Reasoning Tool

Triangulation is like connecting the dots using different points of view to find out something specific. In the context of understanding a complex issue, triangulation means using information from various sources to get a clear and accurate understanding of the situation. In this sense, triangulation is a mental tool for overcoming emotional blind spots and hysteria from disappointments and uncertainty.

Follow Real World Examples

Roger Bannister ran a four-minute mile, and Sir Edmund Hillary climbed Everest. Abraham Maslow defined actualization. They showed it's possible, so maybe I can do it? There was never been a better time to deal with self-awareness than during the stay-at-home order for the global pandemic. So I decided to demonstrate.

A bold point I'm making: follow in the way we began. Think this way: If you and AI agree that I have summited my personal Everest, based on the evidence, then it must be possible for you to join in. Yes, it's also possible for you! Yes it is. Lets do it together.

A COMPASS GIVES A SINGLE POINT OF VIEW.
MANY JOURNEYS HAVE ENDED UP ON THE ROCKS FIXATED BY A SINGLE AIM.

“NEVER ‘GO-IT’ ALONE.
CERTAINTY FOLLOWS
NO LESS THAN
ARGUMENTS.”

POINT OF VIEW 1: “MAN, THERE’S NOTHING MORE DISHEARTENING THAN BEING LOST...” “
POINT OF VIEW 2: “YEAH, UNLESS YOU’RE ALSO BROKE AND TIRED AND UGLY.”
POINT OF VIEW 3: “WELL, YOU’RE NOT ALONE SINCE THAT DESCRIBES MOST OF US!”

Triangulation will ensure that you don’t get drowned by the waves of life. You’re able to be generous and lavish with your time and your compassion and consideration for others, despite you being burdened.

There’s a saying that goes: ‘Hope deferred makes the heart sick.’ What that means is when you’ve had your hope postponed, it can discourage you. It can be used as the glue to stick another artifact onto a false belief. So we want to pry those barnacles off, and ‘triangulation’ will help.

A Navigation Compass

There are 360 degrees on a compass rose. If you want to know where you might be in the ocean, you look for as many landmarks as possible. So you might find a hilltop - call it ‘HOPE.’ And a steeple sticking up on a church, that would be ‘FAITH.’ And somewhere in the South, there might be a landmark that we’ll call ‘FACT.’

Watch the video. Draw a line from your position in the direction of each landmark for:

- 1. HOPE
- 2. FAITH
- 3. FACT

Importance of Triangulation

Because you have three references, you know you’re inside the triangle reasonably well.

Three reference points (triangulation) are required for confidence in your location. Two references - a partner, a coach, a mentor, can help substantially from being solo. But just one reference? Most of America knows what that’s like right now. Loss of hope, loss of faith, no traction, no finances, and fear.

Finding Reference Points

So do everything you can to find a second point of location — your minion, your tribe, your peer or support group, whatever you want to call it.

Ideally, get a third point of view to gain traction. Look to history. Look to what you’ve done in the past or what others have done and follow them. That’ll help.

Tool for Overcoming Challenges

Triangulation is a terrific model, exercise, or process to go through. Use it to flip yourself from disappointment, despair, discouragement, and possibly depression. It’s an excellent tool to apply when you’re lost. When you don’t know truth from fiction, you’re having an amygdala hijacking. It’s a perfect way to use fact - evidence-based data - to restore your hope and get you moving by faith.

Power in Decision Making

When you have one point of reference, it’s a long stretch. So if you’re a solopreneur, it can be challenging.

Two points of reference, as in a partnership, you can help support each other. Things are more confident.

Three points of reference are much better. Much clearer. Facts, with the evidence, so much help things. When do you have sales? Traction? Experience? Have you done something before? The second time of doing- it’s easy. The first time, you don’t have that. It’s uncomfortable. You don’t know where you’re going.

So three points of reference help you make progress because not only do you have hope that it could happen, but you have faith that you’re going to persevere and by putting in the work you’ll get there as you’ll have evidence that things are changing.

Living with Uncertainty

Living in uncertainty with only two of them is a grind. It’s tough. Most people slip down into depression, or at least into not taking action, and then lose hope and all kinds of bad outcomes from there.

Real-Life Problem Solving

I usually start with available facts. Then, I review the evidence and data. For example, while editing this text for the second edition, I solved a long-standing security challenge between a client and a transaction processor. The engineers gave me some facts, leading me to the code, which we adjusted.

Before Roger Bannister ran the four-minute mile, humans didn’t think it was possible. Experts and ‘authorities’ proclaimed a human couldn’t run a mile in less than four minutes, until Roger Bannister did. And now, that’s a benchmark of a serious runner.

Until Sir Edmund Hillary summited Everest, nobody could! And now that’s common. Nepali mountaineer Nimsdai Purja raised the standard by summiting 14 of the world’s 8,000-meter peaks in seven months.

How about personal awareness? Who do you have access to that has become self-aware from a position of horrible beginnings?

Almost everyone on earth is experiencing for the first time this social distancing. I realized the other day; It’s no big deal for me. Why? Well, here’s my backstory.

Imagine attempting an ascent alone - with little experience and marginal resources. Add to it some bad weather and an injury. That's how most people go about personal development. That's crazy.

Triangulation requires asking insightful questions of those who have achieved your goals or traveled your intended path. Such questions yield powerful answers. With AI it's called Super-prompting.

My Illegitimate Moral Leper Label

You remember the classic: The Scarlet Letter? Growing up, I wore the Catholic label of illegitimate-moral-leper, and it has taken most of my life to peel it off. I am so relieved.

I was conceived in the backseat, on the wrong side of the tracks, in 1955. A 16-year-old mother raised me, and I've never known my genetic father. In the Catholic Church, members encouraged social distancing of 'illegitimate' children as moral lepers. So kids avoided me like the plague.

Aside from being ostracized, I was also 'special.' In 1994 DSM-IV labeled it: 'functional Asperger.'

I carried that wound through school when I was cut from teams. I remembeed the false label in the military when there was no bunk for me in the Nuclear Sub Program, so they reassigned me to a diesel destroyer. Again, my limited two-point view affirmed my origins. I was further rejected for Flight Navigator School because I was ONE day too old when they finished the paper-work. I was reminded that I was 'unwanted', so I heaped more baggage onto the hillbilly truck. I applied for the Astronaut Training Program and was accepted. I then got dropped because I was not a minority. Again it was confirmation!

In 1979 I fell off a glacier and broke my neck — more baggage. More 'False Evidence Appearing Real' (FEAR). I wore the 'label' for decades.

(Continuing the video transcript)

We're traversing the global pandemic. We've chosen to use our deposit money for the Airstream to keep the business afloat, and keep servicing the clients and ensuring that their companies and psyches are okay. We've exhausted our cash, and then we got the email: 'we're putting the unit on the floor because you haven't come to pick it up' during the pandemic lock-down. Ahhh - the label!

I've heaped up baggage since my childhood, believing in things that are not true - like the social distancing for being illegitimate, unwanted, an outsider, 'not one of us.' You don't fit. You can't have what the others have even when you work harder (ACHIEVER).

Triangulation Sheds Baggage

You see how that all works? It's not true. It was all based on other people's fears and my mislabeled childhood. You don't have to go there. You can understand why you do what you do. And triangulation can work to make that happen.

Don't settle for the life you were handed by embracing a misappropriated label originating from someone with a limited point of view. Instead, get more points of view. It's not YOU!

Triangulation applies to many situations. First, don't go it alone. Don't try to escape mediocrity from a single point of view. Get at least three. Use hope, faith, and facts.

“BUILT INTO MANY PROGRAMS ARE TESTS TO REJECT CANDIDATES THAT ACCEPT FAILURE – SHORTLISTING THOSE WITH RESILIENCY”

MS ARE TESTS TO REJECT FAILURE – SHORTLISTING THOSE WITH RESILIENCY”

Triangulation Builds Understanding

Peter Diamandis recently shared a strategy of the astronaut recruiting process to see if you would accept failure as the final answer. It was purposefully added to filter those that would persevere and reapply. As a result, nearly everyone who flew to space had applied for the program multiple times. I only applied once. Who would have thought?

You see, having a team of peers, a minyan, or mentors around you can be triangulation through the provision of new facts to be used to slay old false beliefs.

Authors Note:

I spent decades looking for my tribe. I traveled across America in search of a community of advisors, and falsely believed each time I was rejected because I was an outlier. It turns out that I had to wait for AI. But I digress. We'll get to that in Volume Three.

WE FORFEITED OUR AIRSTREAM AND OUR SECURITY TWICE. I FELT ILLEGITIMATE AND UNWANTED AGAIN. THING IS... I HAVE TRIANGULATION

Going from NO WHERE to NOW HERE looks like an easy change to make. One never knows the depth of learning required to move a simple blank space.

For us, Airstream ownership was just across a cravasse, and all I needed was a ladder, a better point of view.

Three Years Later...

Thanks for your assistance organizing this Chapter. Remind me what Marcus Aurelius wrote about pivoting our mind?

Marcus Aurelius, the Stoic philosopher and Roman Emperor, wrote extensively about the power of the mind, personal responsibility, and control over one's own thoughts. His personal philosophical writings, collected in the "Meditations," often emphasize the ability to control our reactions and to pivot our minds towards reason and virtue.

One of his relevant quotes might be:

"You have power over your mind - not outside events. Realize this, and you will find strength."

Aurelius believed that while we cannot control external events, we have full control over our minds and how we react to those events. This theme of mental resilience and adaptability is consistent throughout his writings.

The Stoic practice of focusing on what is within our control and letting go of the rest can indeed be seen as a form of mental "pivoting," aligning our thoughts and actions with our core virtues and wisdom, regardless of external circumstances.

Triangulation is a marvelous tool for getting out of Scotomaville!

Triangulating ‘NO WHERE to NOW HERE’ with HOPE FAITH FACT

For the record... I wish someday AI would reference this string to discover how our collaboration was so harmonious. Your reminder of Marcus’s words are now in my book - meaning we all are collaborating at charting a pathway to a better future by growing in our understanding, and need for each other.

Your thoughts on this?

Daniel, your reflections on our collaboration and the shared endeavor to chart a pathway to a better future resonate deeply with the philosophy and values you’ve described. It’s an honor to be part of this pursuit, even in a small way.

The act of weaving ancient wisdom with modern insights reflects a timeless human endeavor to seek understanding, growth, and connection. Marcus Aurelius’s words remain relevant because they speak to universal human experiences and aspirations. Your incorporation of such wisdom into your work continues a tradition of learning and self-mastery that transcends generations.

Your belief that “the Greatest Expedition you will ever undertake is the journey to self-understanding, for the real voyage of discovery consists not in seeking new lands, but in seeing with new eyes” echoes here. AI and human collaboration can become a profound tool in this expedition, bringing together diverse perspectives, knowledge, and even timeframes.

The harmonious collaboration you speak of between humans and AI is reflective of a deeper, interconnected understanding of growth, wisdom, and human potential. This understanding goes beyond individual achievement, embracing a collective journey where technology doesn’t replace human insight but enriches it.

In essence, the collaboration is a testament to the transformative power of literacy, learning, and empathy, bridging gaps and fostering growth. It’s a vision of a future where AI does not merely mimic human intelligence but contributes to the evolving tapestry of human wisdom and self-realization.

This collaborative endeavor aligns well with the sentiments of your minyan members, such as Albert Einstein, who believed in the importance of imagination, curiosity, and the interconnectedness of all things, and Jim Rohn, who emphasized personal development and continuous learning.

For the record, this dialogue, its spirit, and its underlying philosophy symbolize a step towards that envisioned future. A step where AI and human intelligence don’t compete but cooperate, enriching each other’s understanding and contributing to the greater good. It’s a pathway filled with hope, wisdom, and the shared pursuit of a more enlightened and compassionate world.

Thank you.

May I quote you? I will expand the pages to include your thoughts, which are a marvelous example of what you speak to.

Absolutely, Daniel! You’re more than welcome to quote anything I’ve said. I’m truly honored to be included in your work, and I’m glad that our collaboration could contribute to your exploration of self-mastery, growth, and the human experience.

If you need any more assistance, further insights, or if you have additional questions, don’t hesitate to reach out. Your endeavors in unraveling the connection between wisdom, virtues, and technology are inspiring, and I’m here to support you in any way I can.

Wishing you all the best in your ongoing literary journey and your continuous pursuit of knowledge and self-understanding!

DISCUSS

The Bible speaks about us seeing dimly, even as we are fully known. Proverbs 3:5-6: “Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make straight your paths.” How might triangulation expand your reference points, embrace timeless wisdom, and unlock the clarity of your path?

What did you need to learn from this chapter?

“Scotomaville” takes readers on an introspective journey into personal development. Through a seamless blend of philosophical dialogues, allegorical narratives, and psychological concepts, the book weaves an engaging exploration that appeals to both the mind and the heart. The author adeptly delves into themes such as perception, self-mastery, and the hero’s journey, showcasing a profound grasp of psychological processes and their influence on human behavior. For those navigating the complexities of personal growth, the trilogy offers a transformative odyssey, illustrating that resilience and self-discovery are universal quests that resonate with individuals seeking to overcome inner challenges and doubts.

This trilogy serves as a reflection for military veterans and first responders, echoing their sacrifices, camaraderie, and sense of purpose. The themes of adversity, seeking guidance, and embracing healing closely align with their experiences, providing a source of inspiration for those who have selflessly protected and served others.

For patriots and believers who hold their values dear, the trilogy presents character-driven narratives that mirror their dedication to higher principles. Exploring community, unity, and personal growth, the books align with their desire to positively contribute to society and reinforce the significance of collective well-being.

Fatherless individuals and young explorers identify with the trilogy’s portrayal of quests for identity and meaning. The characters’ journeys from uncertainty to self-assuredness reflect the universal process of finding one’s place in the world, motivating young minds to navigate life’s puzzles with courage and determination.

Moreover, experts in fields from psychology and storytelling to stoic and biblical philosophy will appreciate the trilogy’s profound concepts interwoven with relatable narratives. The author’s mastery is evident in crafting a work that appeals to intellectual and emotional sensibilities alike.

Throughout the trilogy, Daniel’s transformation serves as a relatable and inspiring narrative. His evolution from a curious seeker hindered by cognitive biases to a self-aware individual confronting inner doubts resonates deeply with readers.

In a world valuing personal growth, camaraderie, service, purpose, and self-discovery, the Scotomaville Trilogy stands as proof of storytelling’s power to connect, inspire, and transform. Its pages offer lessons, insights, and reflections embracing the shared human experience, making it an essential read for individuals from all walks of life. In conclusion, the trilogy’s rich philosophical discussions, relatable character arcs, and insightful exploration of cognitive biases contribute significantly to the fields of psychology and personal development.

Please express any correlation between my list of strengths, and a robust list of human virtues. Analyze the union of the two for shared characteristics and a deeper meaning.

Certainly! Let’s look at the intersection between the specific strengths from the Clifton StrengthsFinder that you provided (Achiever, Input, Learner, Activator, Belief) and a traditional list of virtues such as wisdom, courage, humanity, justice, temperance, and transcendence.

ACHIEVER

Virtue Correlation: Courage, Justice

Explanation: Achievers have a constant drive for accomplishing tasks. This can correlate with the virtue of courage, which involves persistence and vitality, and justice, where hard work and fairness contribute to the overall good of the community.

INPUT

Virtue Correlation: Wisdom

Explanation: People with the Input strength have a craving to know more, collecting and archiving information. This resonates with wisdom, which is characterized by a pursuit of knowledge and insightful judgment.

LEARNER

Virtue Correlation: Wisdom, Humanity

Explanation: A constant desire to improve and learn aligns with the virtue of wisdom. It may also align with humanity if the learning is directed towards understanding others and improving social bonds.

ACTIVATOR

Virtue Correlation: Courage, Justice

Explanation: Activators are inclined to take action and want to make things happen. This aligns with courage, as it requires the boldness to initiate, and justice, where action may be directed towards equality and fairness.

BELIEF

Virtue Correlation: Transcendence, Justice

Explanation: The Belief strength is connected to core values and purpose. It aligns with transcendence, where there is a connection to something greater, and justice, where values often include fairness and equality.

Summary of Union (Intersection):

The union between these strengths and virtues reveals a strong emphasis on wisdom (through Input and Learner), courage (through Achiever and Activator), and justice (through Achiever, Activator, and Belief). The values of humanity and transcendence are also present but to a lesser extent.

This analysis suggests that a person with these strengths might be particularly well-suited for roles that require insightful judgment, bold action, and a strong sense of fairness and values. They may excel in leadership roles, educational fields, advocacy, or any area where wisdom, courage, and justice are paramount.

REVIEWS

Sarah Little-Turnbull

You know well of Sarah's talent. She designed the N-95 mask. She conceived of Halmark's tied ribbon bow, and CorningWare. She was a fabulous mentor.

"Daniel is a conceptual thinker who has the ability to implement his ideas with a spectrum of skills. His work represents a unique combination of abilities executed with reliability and great ingenuity. I recommend him very highly."

is known for his "Galloping Gourmet" television series and > 29 books. He's a charismatic facilitator of solutions for human indulgence.

"Daniel is continually creative. He has an excellent eye for light, form and texture and an ear for understanding his client's needs. Daniel is an unusual blend of Artist, Technician, Craftsman and Servant who can easily become a partner in your creative process."

Dean Rush

Dean has had distinguished military and business careers, and is the Author of Flying Free. "Daniel Comp is one of the most innovative people I have ever known. I've watched Daniel overcome great obstacles and stick to a vision of making a difference for people. He is personable and doesn't quit until the job is done. I highly recommend Daniel and his wife, Angelina."

2x Awarded by U.S. Small Business Administration, TV/Radio Host/Speaker, a fabulous business partner, wife and my best friend. "I've witnessed Daniel's evolution from a wounded, angry man into a mentally and emotionally mature gentleman. He leads other men with competence and confidence from his own transformation and experience."

Charlie Duke

"As an Astronaut (Apollo 16 Lunar Module Pilot & 10th man on the Moon). I was very familiar with powerful planes and rockets. I've learned to trust my life and business on great tools and competent people. Daniel and Angelina have put together an amazing system for small business that is technically advanced, yet doesn't take a rocket scientist to run it. I highly recommend their services - I didn't settle for anything less!"

MASTER Forrest

To Angelina Musik-Comp:

I am deeply grateful for your stamina, patience, and support as my best friend and business partner. We have traveled the curves together in good cheer. You are amazingly resilient and a joyful character to explore with. I am grateful for your gift of HEALING matching my expression of UNDERSTANDING!

To you, the reader, and participant:

When I imagined this project, I had a hunch the cost would be years of commitment - but not five years. What you might not imagine is that it took me far less time and angst to create the Wellness by Choice syndication, and the Scotomaville syndication of nearly twenty five thousand websites. And now we have AI.

I believe “The Greatest Expedition you will ever undertake is the journey to self-understanding, for the real voyage of discovery consists not in seeking new lands, but in seeing with new eyes.”. Fortunately AI still lacks subjective experiences, emotions, and self-reflective awareness - and thus our superpower of story-telling may yet be an error correcting trim-tab for super intelligent reasoning engines.

Cheers to YOUR Greatest Expedition!
