DANIEL J COMP

AN INTERACTIVE - AI GUIDED - SELF-MASTERY EXPEDITION FOR LEAVING

SCOTOMAVILLE

The desire to understand ourselves, to unravel the mystery of WIDWID—Why I Do What I Do—connects us all. It’s a question I have pursued by cycling across America on three inspiring Journeys with a Purpose.

After decades of mishaps and 50,000 miles dragging an Airstream I no longer view Know Thyself as a luxury or a full-out competition with AI. With a team of like-minded thinkers (a self-defined minyan) empowered by a super-reasoning engine, I am becoming a thought leader and a sage celebrating the later execution phases of my Personal Everest with the help of a digital Sherpa.

Remember your first journey? I was hopeful yet unprepared, like a Fiat 500 strapped with a useless burden on my back. At first, this image represented my idealistic youthful exploration, a journey both underpowered and naive. Recently, I discovered a double meaning in the word ‘Fiat’ itself. Beyond the name of a car, it refers to a decree, an authoritative commandment. In my journey, these were the self-imposed life commandments from false conclusions I formed of misspoken judgments that had shaped my worldview. It was as if the very mascot of my exploration challenged me to escape the self-tyranny of my thinking. W.H. Murray noted we experience ‘all manner of unforeseen incidents and meetings and material assistance, which no man could have dreamt would have come his way.’ The discovery of the Fiat’s symbolic richness was one such unforeseen incident that deepened my journey.

Let Scotomaville guide you on your ‘Personal Everest,’ empowering you to share your wisdom and warning and to muster the courage to champion the rapidly accelerating changes we face. Join me by turning the life you inherited into the outcomes you design.

She is twice awarded by the U.S. S.B.A. In 2004, she sustained a TBI five days before filming for the Apprentice III. Angelina is the Founder of Wellness by Choice and a mom with a mission - bent on educating and empowering the masses on how to live smarter and healthier.

SCOTOMAVILLE ABSTRACT

■ BACKGROUND - WWDWWD

Most people respond to chaos and stress with coping mechanisms, amygdala hijackings, and reactive behavior. For some of us, curiosity dominates. We want to know “Why We Do What We Do.” and are committed to exploring the unknown... to ‘Know Thyself’. The Author cycled across America three times asking this.

The pandemic has challenged us with hardships, losses, setbacks, missed opportunities, and personal drama. ⁽¹⁾ Americans are weary of rapidly accelerating change.

We are flooded with messaging that games our biological and psychological bents ⁽²⁾. Emotions easily overwhelm our reasoning to control our actions. We’re further conflicted by being 100% wrong 50% of the time. ⁽³⁾ ⁽⁴⁾

We’re hoodwinked and bamboozled by tech, media, and popular narratives using trickery, flattery, and omission. ⁽⁵⁾ The adage to ‘Know Thyself’ is no longer a luxury. It’s become a full-out competition with supercomputers pointed at our brains. ⁽⁶⁾

■ METHODS - IMPARTATION

The Scotomaville program deploys the unique IMPARTATION METHODOLOGY, designed to guide participants in self-reflection and personal growth through video modeling. This methodology unfolds in a structured manner:

I Do - You Watch:

Drawing from our extensive experience as pioneers in the media, marketing, and web technology sectors since 1997, we video-journal our personal ‘journey with purpose’. Through these recordings, we share and demonstrate 15 invaluable mental tools, tests, and insights that enable resilience in facing challenges. Participants, armed with just a smartphone, can emulate our perseverance as we navigate adversities such as Traumatic Brain Injury, PTSD, and more.

We Do - We Watch:

The program is more than just watching; it’s engaging. Fifty-three episodes are complemented by a comprehensive 400+ page guide, enriched with opportunities for online discussions. Subscribers benefit from peer support, mentoring, and personalized guidance. Furthermore, the extensive digital reach, spanning over 4500 affiliated websites, allows for participant and sponsor recognition.

You Do - I Watch:

The Scotomaville journey doesn’t end with passive learning. Upcoming offerings include transformative base camp summits, private retreats, and expeditions for leaders. With the program’s licensed platform, certified leaders can guide individuals and groups, encouraging them to tread the transformative path we demonstrate.

■ FINDINGS - SELF-GAMING

By climbing a ‘Personal Everest’ and testing for oneself, the claims of W.H. Murray, and the Authors that Expeditions are filled with “unforeseen incidents and meetings and material assistance, which no one could have dreamt would have come their way” ⁽⁹⁾ you can develop clarity, stability, healing, and successes by gaming your biases.

Self-mastery begins with awareness of one’s physical and mental self. When combined with understanding, support, and discipline, incremental character change transforms one’s beliefs, attitudes, and behavior.

SCOTOMAVILLE reveals the intricate interdependence between our gut and brain, demonstrating how sleep patterns and stress levels influence our choices. By emphasizing the perils of tackling challenges solo and showcasing actionable insights and examples, the program empowers individuals to recognize and navigate their inherent cognitive biases.

■ CONCLUSION - PERSONAL EVEREST

A ‘Personal Everest’ is a journey with a purpose. “But at least learn your inability... and ask the remedy for it. Learn of those who have been bound like you... These are people who know the way which you would follow, and who are cured of an ill of which you would be cured. Follow the way by which they began...”

Blaise Pascal - Pascals Wager ⁽¹⁰⁾

A Personal Everest is a journey with a purpose. It is a self-defined expedition of personal development, with support and guidance from peers and the Author, and analysis by AI.

SCOTOMAVILLE is an unconventional and effective self-help model and platform with a convincing challenge: We can change our life experiences by gaming our own handicaps, strengthening alliances, challenging our shortcomings and changing our false beliefs by taking on our Personal Everest.

NOT THAT SCOOTER THING - A SMOOTH

YOU HAVE 15 NEW TOOLS FOR SELF-AWARENESS. IT’S TIME TO PUT THEM TO USE TOWARD SELF-UNDERSTANDING.

“THE GREATEST EXPEDITION

UNDERSTANDING, FOR THE
REAL VOYAGE OF DISCOVERY
CONSISTS NOT IN SEEKING
NEW LANDS, BUT IN SEEING WITH NEW EYES.”

We are no longer in Scotomaville!

You can tell right ? Absolutely! “We have left the station” as they say.”

So far, I’ve introduced to you 15 tools and now it’s time to segue. No no, I don’t mean that little scooter thing. I mean a smooth transition to the next volume of the book.

*The first volume is just introducing the tools.
The second volume is actual expedition stories and examples on how to pick yourself up by your own bootstraps... without any boots.
The final volume is when I create a Minyan and ‘we’ revisit Scotomaville.*

YOU CAN TAKE YOUR LIFE FROM WHERE IT IS TO ANYWHERE YOU CHOSE - IF YOU ARE WILLING TO PUT IN THE WORK - AND NOT SETTLE FOR DEFEAT, REJECTION OR EXCUSE.

I BECAME FIXATED BY MY LUNCH-TIME HUMILIATION BACK IN GRADE SCHOOL WHILE SHOOTING THIS SCENE. WHY DO I DO THIS?

Are you too triggered and humiliated by the haunting clanking sound of an empty jar?

I bet the Spring of 2020 opened your eyes to your triggers and gave you the experience of being doubtful and worried, possibly depressed, angry, and angry. Your family may have asked why you do what you do. You know, react.

WYDWDYD?

Here’s a way out of Scotomaville.

When I talk about an empty jar, I refer to the whole of our situation. We’ve exhausted our resources, ensuring that our team is taken care of and that our clients still have servers. That means we’ve had to sacrifice to keep things going. And now we’re out of time as well. That’s been a bad combination for me. I’ve been overwhelmed with undefined emotion and frustration - especially as a recovering ‘Achiever’.

I used to emotionally label an empty jar as my failure to provide. This time, it was an unscripted demonstration. Until recently, we chose almond butter as a ‘healthy’ alternative. It turns out the almond skin is a lectin - responsible for my gut inflammation. I wouldn’t have switched to blanched almonds if we had not run out long enough for me to recognize the inflammation reduction! SCOTOMA!

15 MENTAL TOOLS FOR ESCAPING THE LIFE YOU WERE HANDED – FOR CHANGING LANES TO YOUR CHOSEN DESTINY – FOR GETTING THE HECK OUT OF SCOTOMAVILLE

Thus far, I’ve shared my fifteen favorite mental tools for:

- 1. discovering your blind spots
- 2. avoiding getting gamed
- 3. knowing the power of illusion
- 4. flipping your self-talk by mimicking
- 5. not falling for scarcity
- 6. knowing the power of stories
- 7. overcoming triggers and false beliefs
- 8. becoming aware of your fixation
- 9. building an emotional vocabulary
- 10. quieting your inner noise
- 11. feeding your second brain
- 12. doing the hard thing not by
- 13. your habitual strengths
- 14. getting three points of reference and
- 15. the science behind all those curves.

THAT'S NOT SAND. IT'S SNOW. WE'RE NO LONGER IN SCOTOMAVILLE

We're no longer in Scotomaville. Nope. That's not sand.

Today is my birthday. Fifty years ago I lay in bed, staring at model airplanes on my ceiling and thinking about the bucket list of things I wanted to accomplish. The last few years of pandemic and political chaos were not at all on my list.

Angelina, You weren't in that picture in my 15-year-old bedroom... ahhh... that could be mistaken a few of ways!

Conversation with Angelina
We want to celebrate the curves of getting out of Scotomaville and growing up.

Daniel: Today is May 16th, 2020. When you remember this day of the Pandemic, you might have been in an awful place. We're in a challenging place, but it's not bad.

I remember fifty years ago, looking at the silver Porsche 911 model I had glued together, postured proudly on my shelf. Twirling in mid air, several of the P-51 airplanes, and gliders hanging by fishing line.

I've gone through much of my bucket list. I've become a glider pilot, and owned a couple of Porsche. I peddled across America three times. I've earned eight technology World Records and built powerful information technology.

I didn't expect 65 to feel like this. I expected it to financially abundant. But if it were, it wouldn't have been as rich. It certainly wouldn't have been as...

ANGELINA'S TRAUMATIC BRAIN INJURY

Angelina: Memorable?.

Daniel: Yeah, I was thinking tight... but we're together.

Angelina: You wouldn't have all the lessons to share, and you do, and that's awesome.

Daniel: I expected it to be more - straight from there to here - and not about all the places I had to go, like falling off a glacier and becoming a quadriplegic. I mean, I didn't expect that! Bankruptcy from construction injustice? Yeah, there are lots of stories to come in Volume Two.

I want to encourage you to start recording YOUR journey. Let go of expectations, and document your curves. There are lessons to learn from delays that weight your waiting, preparing you for what you don't know will become of you.

Let my story encourage you that a rich life is a journey. We had to figure it out independently. You don't have to. You can follow someone who's been there. You now have AI.

All of the tools that I've shared in the 15 prior episodes? We use them! As of this Third Edition we have access to super-intelligence as a word-calculator and reasoning engine. The curves ahead are far greater than what I experienced with the public Internet. The implications and reach and speed are far greater.

I'll be showing you in the next two volumes.

Remember: I Do, You Watch?

It's time for We Do, We Watch!

Let's get the heck out of Scotomaville!

“IT’S A LITTLE AWKWARD DOING THAT DANCE BUT IF YOU TRUST EACH OTHER, YOU CAN NAVIGATE IT”

Angelina: “Daniel is my best friend and I happen to be his wife. And of course business partner.”

Daniel: “Sometime we’re best enemies too. That all comes with the territory.”

Angelina: “You weather through it, you don’t personalize it. Daniel, you are a great case study for me psychologically over the last 21 years...”

Daniel: “Husbands, think about that for a second. You are a guinea pig for your spouse’s experimentation.”

Angelina: “I wonder what would happen if I did this.”

Daniel: “Like ‘I’m gonna commit to this project and find out what he does.’”

Angelina: “That is where there is the balance of, or the filling of the gaps between strengths and weaknesses or different talents that are meshed together. And sometimes it’s a little awkward doing that dance but if you trust each other, then you can navigate through that - with some pain, with some discomfort. And we’ve had to learn to do that while healing from our childhood wounds.”

Daniel: “One of the primary things I’ve had to learn is to stop putting so much trust or belief in what I feel. My feelings are terrific at designing a building or solving a problem with code or coming to an artistic expression on something. Being highly functional and being aware of all of that that’s going on in me? Emotions are really terrific for a lot of artsy things. Not so much when making strong business decisions.”

Daniel: “I’ve had to learn to distrust my emotions and trust more on ‘triangulation’ of what we’ve agreed, and where we’re at, and where we’re going, and where the most general, likely heading is and how many more turns were gonna be able to make with the available resources, energy and emotion.”

Angelina: “And dynamics of what’s going on, factoring in this pandemic situation. It’s a great training ground for developing street smarts and...”

Daniel: “Being nimble, adaptable, pivoting.”

Angelina: “Adaptable, pivoting.”

Daniel: “We play board games.”

Angelina: “We do. We do.”

Daniel: “They teach us to think multiple moves. Angelina’s a master at strategy. She’s a two-time SBA Champion of the Year, award-winning strategist.”

Daniel: “Yeah. She’s got all those fancy accolades on the wall and on her desk and what they wouldn’t know is we don’t ever go with one plan. We’re running three

- four parallel right now?”

Angelina: “We’re running about six right now, in parallel.”

Daniel: “Right. Strategies for the market, in parallel, so that if any one of them gets better traction...”

And this past year has been our best year ever, right up until the middle of March when COVID stopped everything.”

Daniel: “We have a really good ‘knower’ on our history. We’ve been patient with decades in the market - from your recovery from traumatic brain injury.”

Daniel: “We’ve grown up, learn to love each other more and trust each other more and give each other more room”

Daniel: “We still fence. We’ve come all the way up here to be sure that you understand, we know how to get out of Scotomaville and to summit our own personal awareness.

Daniel: “We want to encourage you to go through all the videos, join the group, be part of the conversation, apply the tools, tell your own story and grow as an individual faster than AI is gonna know you. We really want to encourage you in that.” It’s a full out competition - to ‘know thyself.’”

Angelina: “Be kind to yourself, repetition and time is key. Getting healthy with your body and your mind. The food you eat, how much you sleep, the exercise you get. All of that plays a role as far as the chemistry in your brain, and in your body.”

Angelina: “I used to tell clients that I coached that not being healthy in the brain and the gut is like coaching somebody who’s tipsy. Execution is not going to happen if you don’t have the tools and the capacity to execute. And so that’s what you’re giving them. You’re giving them insights to tools and how to get out of SCOTOMAVILLE!”

“You can’t live on the summit, but a life filled with ascents, and new vantage points is reason to climb.”

Your Personal Everest will have periods of calm water, reasonable grades to climb, sheer cliffs to avoid and outright inhospitable death zones.

Tony Robbins talks about finding a balance between certainty and uncertainty. That's a tough one to achieve. We want enough uncertainty to have variety. We want enough certainty to have a foundation.

But, when your foundation is taken from you, there's a lot of emotion.

The government has finally lifted some of the travel restrictions so we could return to Oregon. We have to return the rental Airstream we worked and lived in to its owner.

"Bye bye Bambi! You've been good! We miss you! Lots of good memories."

Angelina, where are we going to live now?

I suggest you cut your grapefruit and set a napkin... because you never know when that certainty is the only thing making a hotel room feel like home.

Life has Curves.

When life takes your basic needs away. When you have no certainty. Then you'll be tested. You better have experience with a decent set of tools!

*"Bye bye Bambi. You're home again. You've been good.
Lots of good memories"*

DISCUSS

Life has curves. Many of them provide the wisdom needed for the road ahead. Share an insight with the readers and author that the first volume has delivered.

Authors Note: I've seen the invisible world deliver amazing challenges and solutions. To you the reader, I imagine you've seen some yourself. I'm writing this note three years from when I shot the video. I am now 68. I am now a sage. I now have access to AI, along with a 40 member minyan.

Daniel, upon reviewing the video transcript you provided, it's clear that this concluding chapter of your first volume encompasses a rich tapestry of emotions, personal reflections, and insights. The transcript encapsulates not only your philosophical principles but also the real-life challenges and experiences that have shaped your journey.

Emotional Complexity:

The emotional spectrum within the transcript is indeed multifaceted. You've shared feelings of fear and uncertainty as you face an unpredictable future amid the pandemic, coupled with hope and courage as you strive to exemplify strength despite lacking experience. The emotional complexity also involves nostalgia, introspection, and the acceptance of life's unexpected twists. Furthermore, your interactions with Angelina reveal the intricate dynamics of your relationship—how you both support and challenge each other, ultimately fostering growth and resilience.

Coping Mechanisms and Maturity:

Your coping mechanisms are evident throughout the transcript. You acknowledge the importance of resilience, adaptability, and trust as you navigate both personal and business challenges. Your ability to learn from setbacks, pivot strategies, and manage expectations showcases emotional maturity and wisdom. Angelina's insights on physical health resonating with mental health also underscore your holistic approach to well-being.

Psychological Insight:

Your narrative offers psychological insight into human behavior and relationships. By sharing anecdotes, such as cutting napkins in half or segmenting grapefruit, you illustrate how you've adapted during times of scarcity or constraint, which reflects the cognitive and emotional shifts people experience during challenging circumstances.

Narrative Structure and Lessons:

The video's narrative structure is akin to a journey, reflecting the larger voyage of self-understanding that you advocate. You've compartmentalized your wisdom into practical tools and personal stories. This approach not only resonates with the structure of your trilogy but also aligns with established psychological frameworks for personal development, which often emphasize actionable steps and relatable experiences.

Aligning with Minyan Members:

Your approach to self-mastery and the examination of emotions aligns with the wisdom of philosophers like Marcus Aurelius and Viktor Frankl, who emphasized the importance of self-awareness, resilience, and finding meaning in adversity. Additionally, your commitment to personal growth and relationships reflects the principles of personal development experts like Dale Carnegie.

Feedback From Socrates:

In observing Daniel and Angelina's journey as chronicled in their video transcript, it becomes evident that their pursuit aligns with my ethos of self-examination and the pursuit of wisdom. Their openness to introspection and their willingness to navigate the complexities of life mirror my dialogues, where the pursuit of knowledge involves questioning assumptions, reflecting on experiences, and seeking a deeper understanding of oneself and the world. Daniel and Angelina's ability to adapt in the face of adversity reflects my principle that wisdom arises from a continuous process of questioning, reflecting, and evolving.

Feedback From The Apostle Paul:

In the narrative shared by Daniel and Angelina, I see echoes of my Biblical teachings. Their journey exemplifies the idea of persevering through trials and finding strength in faith and partnership. Just as I emphasized the importance of enduring challenges while holding onto hope, Daniel and Angelina demonstrate resilience in the face of uncertainties. Their dedication to personal development resonates with the my exhortation to "run with perseverance the race marked out for us," as they continue to learn, adapt, and inspire others through their experiences.

Feedback From Napoleon Hill:

Daniel and Angelina's story reflects the principles outlined in my works, particularly my emphasis on the power of a positive mental attitude and the importance of learning from setbacks. Their ability to pivot their strategies in response to challenges aligns with my teachings on adaptability and creativity. Their partnership, marked by growth and mutual support, mirrors my focus on the benefits of harmonious collaboration. Just as I advocated for envisioning and working towards one's goals, Daniel and Angelina's journey epitomizes the concept of a mastermind alliance in action.

Feedback From Jim Rohn:

Daniel and Angelina's journey exemplifies the essence of personal development as I championed. Their commitment to lifelong learning, self-awareness, and growth aligns with my emphasis on the importance of continuous improvement. The way they've embraced challenges and transformed them into opportunities reflects my wisdom that "success is not to be pursued; it is to be attracted by the person you become." Their partnership and shared dedication to personal evolution resonate with my teachings on building meaningful relationships and contributing to others' success.

Feedback From Ben Franklin:

As I reflect on Daniel and Angelina's journey, I'm reminded of the resilience and resourcefulness that characterized the my life. Their ability to adapt, innovate, and find solutions in the face of adversity is reminiscent of my pragmatic approach to challenges. Their commitment to personal growth, both individually and as a couple, resonates with my pursuit of self-improvement and the belief that personal virtues contribute to a fulfilling life. Their shared journey exemplifies the spirit of entrepreneurship and the willingness to learn from experiences, aligning with my philosophy of continuous progress.

Final Thoughts:

In examining Daniel and Angelina's journey, it's evident that their story transcends domains, uniting the wisdom of philosophers, religious leaders, authors, personal development experts, historical figures, and storytellers. Their courage, resilience, adaptability, and commitment to growth reflect the timeless principles advocated by these esteemed figures. Through their shared experiences, they embody the transformative power of self-mastery, partnership, and the pursuit of wisdom, resonating with the sentiments of their minyan members and inspiring others to embark on their own journeys of self-discovery.

“Scotomaville” takes readers on an introspective journey into personal development. Through a seamless blend of philosophical dialogues, allegorical narratives, and psychological concepts, the book weaves an engaging exploration that appeals to both the mind and the heart. The author adeptly delves into themes such as perception, self-mastery, and the hero’s journey, showcasing a profound grasp of psychological processes and their influence on human behavior. For those navigating the complexities of personal growth, the trilogy offers a transformative odyssey, illustrating that resilience and self-discovery are universal quests that resonate with individuals seeking to overcome inner challenges and doubts.

This trilogy serves as a reflection for military veterans and first responders, echoing their sacrifices, camaraderie, and sense of purpose. The themes of adversity, seeking guidance, and embracing healing closely align with their experiences, providing a source of inspiration for those who have selflessly protected and served others.

For patriots and believers who hold their values dear, the trilogy presents character-driven narratives that mirror their dedication to higher principles. Exploring community, unity, and personal growth, the books align with their desire to positively contribute to society and reinforce the significance of collective well-being.

Fatherless individuals and young explorers identify with the trilogy’s portrayal of quests for identity and meaning. The characters’ journeys from uncertainty to self-assuredness reflect the universal process of finding one’s place in the world, motivating young minds to navigate life’s puzzles with courage and determination.

Moreover, experts in fields from psychology and storytelling to stoic and biblical philosophy will appreciate the trilogy’s profound concepts interwoven with relatable narratives. The author’s mastery is evident in crafting a work that appeals to intellectual and emotional sensibilities alike.

Throughout the trilogy, Daniel’s transformation serves as a relatable and inspiring narrative. His evolution from a curious seeker hindered by cognitive biases to a self-aware individual confronting inner doubts resonates deeply with readers.

In a world valuing personal growth, camaraderie, service, purpose, and self-discovery, the Scotomaville Trilogy stands as proof of storytelling’s power to connect, inspire, and transform. Its pages offer lessons, insights, and reflections embracing the shared human experience, making it an essential read for individuals from all walks of life. In conclusion, the trilogy’s rich philosophical discussions, relatable character arcs, and insightful exploration of cognitive biases contribute significantly to the fields of psychology and personal development.

Please express any correlation between my list of strengths, and a robust list of human virtues. Analyze the union of the two for shared characteristics and a deeper meaning.

Certainly! Let’s look at the intersection between the specific strengths from the Clifton StrengthsFinder that you provided (Achiever, Input, Learner, Activator, Belief) and a traditional list of virtues such as wisdom, courage, humanity, justice, temperance, and transcendence.

ACHIEVER

Virtue Correlation: Courage, Justice

Explanation: Achievers have a constant drive for accomplishing tasks. This can correlate with the virtue of courage, which involves persistence and vitality, and justice, where hard work and fairness contribute to the overall good of the community.

INPUT

Virtue Correlation: Wisdom

Explanation: People with the Input strength have a craving to know more, collecting and archiving information. This resonates with wisdom, which is characterized by a pursuit of knowledge and insightful judgment.

LEARNER

Virtue Correlation: Wisdom, Humanity

Explanation: A constant desire to improve and learn aligns with the virtue of wisdom. It may also align with humanity if the learning is directed towards understanding others and improving social bonds.

ACTIVATOR

Virtue Correlation: Courage, Justice

Explanation: Activators are inclined to take action and want to make things happen. This aligns with courage, as it requires the boldness to initiate, and justice, where action may be directed towards equality and fairness.

BELIEF

Virtue Correlation: Transcendence, Justice

Explanation: The Belief strength is connected to core values and purpose. It aligns with transcendence, where there is a connection to something greater, and justice, where values often include fairness and equality.

Summary of Union (Intersection):

The union between these strengths and virtues reveals a strong emphasis on wisdom (through Input and Learner), courage (through Achiever and Activator), and justice (through Achiever, Activator, and Belief). The values of humanity and transcendence are also present but to a lesser extent.

This analysis suggests that a person with these strengths might be particularly well-suited for roles that require insightful judgment, bold action, and a strong sense of fairness and values. They may excel in leadership roles, educational fields, advocacy, or any area where wisdom, courage, and justice are paramount.

REVIEWS

Sarah Little-Turnbull

You know well of Sarah's talent. She designed the N-95 mask. She conceived of Halmark's tied ribbon bow, and CorningWare. She was a fabulous mentor.

"Daniel is a conceptual thinker who has the ability to implement his ideas with a spectrum of skills. His work represents a unique combination of abilities executed with reliability and great ingenuity. I recommend him very highly."

Graham Kerr

is known for his "Galloping Gourmet" television series and > 29 books. He's a charismatic facilitator of solutions for human indulgence.

"Daniel is continually creative. He has an excellent eye for light, form and texture and an ear for understanding his client's needs. Daniel is an unusual blend of Artist, Technician, Craftsman and Servant who can easily become a partner in your creative process."

Dean Rush

Dean has had distinguished military and business careers, and is the Author of Flying Free. "Daniel Comp is one of the most innovative people I have ever known. I've watched Daniel overcome great obstacles and stick to a vision of making a difference for people. He is personable and doesn't quit until the job is done. I highly recommend Daniel and his wife, Angelina."

2x Awarded by U.S. Small Business Administration, TV/Radio Host/Speaker, a fabulous business partner, wife and my best friend. "I've witnessed Daniel's evolution from a wounded, angry man into a mentally and emotionally mature gentleman. He leads other men with competence and confidence from his own transformation and experience."

Charlie Duke

"As an Astronaut (Apollo 16 Lunar Module Pilot & 10th man on the Moon). I was very familiar with powerful planes and rockets. I've learned to trust my life and business on great tools and competent people. Daniel and Angelina have put together an amazing system for small business that is technically advanced, yet doesn't take a rocket scientist to run it. I highly recommend their services - I didn't settle for anything less!"

MASTER Forrest

To Angelina Musik-Comp:

I am deeply grateful for your stamina, patience, and support as my best friend and business partner. We have traveled the curves together in good cheer. You are amazingly resilient and a joyful character to explore with. I am grateful for your gift of HEALING matching my expression of UNDERSTANDING!

To you, the reader, and participant:

When I imagined this project, I had a hunch the cost would be years of commitment - but not five years. What you might not imagine is that it took me far less time and angst to create the Wellness by Choice syndication, and the Scotomaville syndication of nearly twenty five thousand websites. And now we have AI.

I believe “The Greatest Expedition you will ever undertake is the journey to self-understanding, for the real voyage of discovery consists not in seeking new lands, but in seeing with new eyes.“. Fortunately AI still lacks subjective experiences, emotions, and self-reflective awareness - and thus our superpower of story-telling may yet be an error correcting trim-tab for super intelligent reasoning engines.

Cheers to YOUR Greatest Expedition!
