AN INTERACTIVE - AI GUIDED - SELF-MASTERY EXPEDITION FOR LEAVING

SCOTOMAVILLE

The desire to understand ourselves, to unravel the mystery of WIDWID—Why I Do What I Do—connects us all. It’s a question I have pursued by cycling across America on three inspiring Journeys with a Purpose.

After decades of mishaps and 50,000 miles dragging an Airstream I no longer view Know Thyself as a luxury or a full-out competition with AI. With a team of like-minded thinkers (a self-defined minyan) empowered by a super-reasoning engine, I am becoming a thought leader and a sage celebrating the later execution phases of my Personal Everest with the help of a digital Sherpa.

Remember your first journey? I was hopeful yet unprepared, like a Fiat 500 strapped with a useless burden on my back. At first, this image represented my idealistic youthful exploration, a journey both underpowered and naive. Recently, I discovered a double meaning in the word ‘Fiat’ itself. Beyond the name of a car, it refers to a decree, an authoritative commandment. In my journey, these were the self-imposed life commandments from false conclusions I formed of misspoken judgments that had shaped my worldview. It was as if the very mascot of my exploration challenged me to escape the self-tyranny of my thinking. W.H. Murray noted we experience ‘all manner of unforeseen incidents and meetings and material assistance, which no man could have dreamt would have come his way.’ The discovery of the Fiat’s symbolic richness was one such unforeseen incident that deepened my journey.

Let Scotomaville guide you on your ‘Personal Everest,’ empowering you to share your wisdom and warning and to muster the courage to champion the rapidly accelerating changes we face. Join me by turning the life you inherited into the outcomes you design.

SCOTOMAVILLE ABSTRACT

■ BACKGROUND - WWDWWD

Most people respond to chaos and stress with coping mechanisms, amygdala hijackings, and reactive behavior. For some of us, curiosity dominates. We want to know “Why We Do What We Do.” and are committed to exploring the unknown... to ‘Know Thyself’. The Author cycled across America three times asking this.

The pandemic has challenged us with hardships, losses, setbacks, missed opportunities, and personal drama. ⁽¹⁾ Americans are weary of rapidly accelerating change.

We are flooded with messaging that games our biological and psychological bents ⁽²⁾. Emotions easily overwhelm our reasoning to control our actions. We’re further conflicted by being 100% wrong 50% of the time. ⁽³⁾ ⁽⁴⁾

We’re hoodwinked and bamboozled by tech, media, and popular narratives using trickery, flattery, and omission. ⁽⁵⁾ The adage to ‘Know Thyself’ is no longer a luxury. It’s become a full-out competition with supercomputers pointed at our brains. ⁽⁶⁾

■ METHODS - IMPARTATION

The Scotomaville program deploys the unique IMPARTATION METHODOLOGY, designed to guide participants in self-reflection and personal growth through video modeling. This methodology unfolds in a structured manner:

I Do - You Watch:

Drawing from our extensive experience as pioneers in the media, marketing, and web technology sectors since 1997, we video-journal our personal ‘journey with purpose’. Through these recordings, we share and demonstrate 15 invaluable mental tools, tests, and insights that enable resilience in facing challenges. Participants, armed with just a smartphone, can emulate our perseverance as we navigate adversities such as Traumatic Brain Injury, PTSD, and more.

We Do - We Watch:

The program is more than just watching; it’s engaging. Fifty-three episodes are complemented by a comprehensive 400+ page guide, enriched with opportunities for online discussions. Subscribers benefit from peer support, mentoring, and personalized guidance. Furthermore, the extensive digital reach, spanning over 4500 affiliated websites, allows for participant and sponsor recognition.

You Do - I Watch:

The Scotomaville journey doesn’t end with passive learning. Upcoming offerings include transformative base camp summits, private retreats, and expeditions for leaders. With the program’s licensed platform, certified leaders can guide individuals and groups, encouraging them to tread the transformative path we demonstrate.

■ FINDINGS - SELF-GAMING

By climbing a ‘Personal Everest’ and testing for oneself, the claims of W.H. Murray, and the Authors that Expeditions are filled with “unforeseen incidents and meetings and material assistance, which no one could have dreamt would have come their way” ⁽⁹⁾ you can develop clarity, stability, healing, and successes by gaming your biases.

Self-mastery begins with awareness of one’s physical and mental self. When combined with understanding, support, and discipline, incremental character change transforms one’s beliefs, attitudes, and behavior.

SCOTOMAVILLE reveals the intricate interdependence between our gut and brain, demonstrating how sleep patterns and stress levels influence our choices. By emphasizing the perils of tackling challenges solo and showcasing actionable insights and examples, the program empowers individuals to recognize and navigate their inherent cognitive biases.

■ CONCLUSION - PERSONAL EVEREST

A ‘Personal Everest’ is a journey with a purpose. “But at least learn your inability... and ask the remedy for it. Learn of those who have been bound like you... These are people who know the way which you would follow, and who are cured of an ill of which you would be cured. Follow the way by which they began...”

Blaise Pascal - Pascals Wager ⁽¹⁰⁾

A Personal Everest is a journey with a purpose. It is a self-defined expedition of personal development, with support and guidance from peers and the Author, and analysis by AI.

SCOTOMAVILLE is an unconventional and effective self-help model and platform with a convincing challenge: We can change our life experiences by gaming our own handicaps, strengthening alliances, challenging our shortcomings and changing our false beliefs by taking on our Personal Everest.

VOLUME TWO

v2 EXPEDITION PRELUDE

WHAT YOU WOULDN'T EXPECT IS HOW OFTEN WE ARE 100% WRONG.

Welcome to Volume Two of SCOTOMAVILLE! We're in a fabulous place called Purgatory. But, C.S. Lewis wrote that we can chose to leave. We don't have to stay here. Yea!

Volume One is about mental tools for self-awareness to get to self-understanding. From there, you can use discipline to change the trajectory of your experience in life.

An expedition is a 'journey with a purpose.' If the purpose is to transform what you've been handed into something

"PROBLEMS ARE COMPLICATED AND WE'RE 100% WRONG 50% OF THE TIME. WE GOOGLE AND LET YOUTUBE CONFIRM OUR BELIEFS: YEP, IT'S TOO COMPLICATED FOR US TO SORT OUT... OR IS THE SCOTOMA THAT WE DON'T WANT TO MAKE THE EFFORT?"

better, then Volume Two will be a fabulous desert trek!

Hopeful Avoidance Fails

I've known a few people that have gone to seminars and workshops with the hope they'd get a bump up, a lift, an artificial boost to their self-awareness. In my experience, awareness does not come without great effort.

Our 20 watt brain is wired to quickly reach conclusions by finding familiar patterns. Do you see a smiley face in the door latch?

THE MANUFACTURER RECALLS ARE FOR MILLIONS OF FAULTY DOOR LATCHES. YEP, MY DOOR LATCH IS FAULTY.

“WE DON’T SOLVE CHALLENGES WITH A ‘CLEAN SLATE’. WE START FROM PREVIOUS CONCLUSIONS – HALF OF THEM WRONG.”

You have to walk up that thing. (looking up the chair-lift hill) If you just get airlifted to the top of your Personal Everest, you’re going to get edema. Your brain swells up, and you die on the mountain.

Psychological Scotoma Example:

Psychological scotomas are hard to find. They’re usually right in front of us, often disguised as work. And you go down a long, windy path usually taking a short-cut away from critical thinking.

Case in point: Last night.

Angelina: Let me show you the problem. Watch the door - it’s not latching. Look at that; it’s not latching. You can’t drive a car with an unlatched door because you’ll fall out. Look right here.

Daniel: It’s a $68,000 brand new Ford and, what did I do? I went online to discover articles: Ford’s got 2.15 million vehicles in a door latch recall, 1.34 million truck door latch problems. There’s a class-action suit that has been ongoing for years, and years, and years. Oh my gosh, it’s just on and on and on.

OUR BRAINS ARE WIRED TO RECOGNIZE PATTERNS, TO TAKE SHORTCUTS AND JUMP TO CONCLUSIONS IN ORDER TO CREATE MEANING FROM CHAOS WITH THE AIM OF PROTECTING US FROM REAL OR IMAGINED DANGER.

forward to episode 2.12 on Self-care

So then I called the dealership to find out that we couldn’t get the vehicle in until Monday because it’s already Friday. And, after they look at it, it’ll be seven to ten days to get the parts, and then it’ll be three or four days in repair. Meaning it’s two weeks from now before they can fix it. But then they look up my VIN, and they discover something shocking.

Your VIN is Invalid

Angelina: It is almost August 2020. We purchased the truck in December 2019 and filled out all the paperwork, including the registration fees and taxes. We need our title. And we don’t have our title, which means we can’t fix our vehicle because we don’t own it! And I’ve gone back and forth and back and forth between emails and phone calls and sending documents! Oh my! And right now, we have a door that won’t latch but will swing open when Daniel drives, where I could fall out, but I won’t because we aren’t driving it.

Daniel: You’ve been very patient, waiting for them to do their paperwork - over and over.

Angelina: I’m not patient anymore. It’s a safety issue, and it’s a transportation issue!

Daniel: She has been patient. Less so for me. I’ve been scared to drive without license plates. Look at the back of the book! It says Sco oma! The printer rejected the book on three fix-it tickets because the spelling doesn’t have the ‘t’! But driving without a valid license plate because the car is not registered? I have to be patient. COVID has everyone messed up.

Angelina: COVID is part of it, but then there’s incompetence and poor customer service.

“You might have had it a year, but you don’t yet own the vehicle, so we can’t do the repairs”

“scotoma!”

Look for what’s really going on “Life is what happens between our plans.” Problem is, our plans are biased by what we believe is true - based in large part by digital recommendations.”

Daniel: She’s always patient! If she’s triggered, then something is very off. I have some defuse time, asking where’s the scotoma? It can’t be this complex! Let’s look at the truck to show you what I discovered. I think through what I’ve read about the recalls and the latches freezing, and I think ‘wait a minute, let me see, now that I know the mechanics of the door, let me look at something...

Angelina: Yesterday, I had some mints when we took my daughter to the airport, and I put it back in here. And unbeknown to me...

Daniel: Here, where you store your things.

Angelina: Yeah, it’s where I store my stuff, but look at how easy the door pull is to flip it down. It’s effortless.

Daniel: What does that do?

Angelina: It keeps the door unlatched because that's what you pull on to open the door. That's why it won't latch, because of these! (picking up the mints) I have to stick the mints at the bottom, so I don't fall out of the car while you're driving - because of mints!

Daniel: Here's the takeaway for getting out of SCOTOMAVILLE. Use the tools in Volume One to solve problems and to mature rather than just age. I'll demonstrate this across Volume Two.

Do you see Pattern Recognition?

If I believe things are always complicated then I jump right to a conclusion with my 20-watt brain. I find something familiar (a pattern). I match it up with experiences I've had (amygdalae), and jump to a 100% wrong conclusion!

However, I came to another point of view by taking diffuse time, letting the ideas cross-connect, and using triangulation. Tadaah!

Mints in The Latch Cubby
I take a moment to re-assess with a closer look. Why are mints in the latch cubby?
Although my fear is facing two weeks without a vehicle and a thousand dollars in costs, I practice advice from Marcus Aurelius. It turns out I've been gifted a challenge to overcome. Doing so demonstrates that the mental tools of Volume One work.

I'm pleased to be wrong half of the time. It liberates me to find the truth. I don't have to accept what I've been led to believe.

BONUS INSIGHT

I don't want you to miss this! I did some research on Google earlier. I'm finishing my to-do list and, now, on YouTube, in the sidebar... A.I. posing as a helpful recommender is now chasing me! See how this is all tied together?

Scotomas encourage A.I. to chase you!

CURVES AHEAD:
The journey to self-awareness seems to create its own weather - to obscure your confidence. Be ready.

I want for you to become more than self-aware. I want you to understand why you do what you do. Better than that, I want for you the discipline to create a life for yourself that you weren't handed. To change things from what you inherited to what you desire.

You can do that. I've done it.

We're starting V2 in the Pacific Northwest, heading to New Mexico to pick up our Air-stream and from there journeying with purpose. I look forward to the Episodes to come, which I have not planned or storyboarded. I want to see how we handle the future events, the changes, the curves, the disruptions, the life that happens between our plans!

At the top of the results is a long-standing class-action lawsuit on similar door latches. Crap. I'm triggered.

DISCUSS

Share with us a challenge you've overcome, especially the insight others will learn by your example of stepping on something you should not have.

Leaving Scotomaville includes a visit to Purgatory. C.S. Lewis wrote that we don't have to stay there. You should only discover a scotoma once. If you discover the same one thrice - then consider Lewis' allegory:

In C.S. Lewis's allegorical novel "The Great Divorce," purgatory is depicted as a sort of grey town where the inhabitants find themselves after death. This grey town is neither Hell nor Heaven but rather a place where people are stuck in a state of dissatisfaction and misery.

Lewis's concept of purgatory is unique in that it's not a place of punishment or purification, but rather a place of choice. The inhabitants of the grey town have the option to take a bus to the outskirts of Heaven, where they are met by spirits who encourage them to make the journey into Heaven, relinquishing their earthly desires, vices, and false selves.

The central theme here is that the inhabitants of purgatory are not sentenced to stay there; they are given a choice. They can choose to let go of the things that hold them back and ascend to Heaven, or they can choose to hold on to their earthly attachments and return to the grey town.

Many characters in the novel find the choice difficult, as letting go of their former selves and earthly attachments is painful and challenging. But Lewis emphasizes that the choice is always there, and it's never too late to grow.

The novel's portrayal of purgatory underscores Lewis's belief in the power of free will and the importance of personal responsibility in spiritual growth. It aligns with the Christian doctrine of salvation through grace, with the understanding that individuals must actively choose to accept that grace.

In connecting with your philosophy, Daniel, this concept can be seen as a metaphorical representation of the journey to self-understanding and personal transformation. The choice to leave Scotomaville (purgatory) and ascend to a higher spiritual plane reflects the idea of realigning skewed perceptions and changing one's given life into the one they envision.

“Scotomaville” takes readers on an introspective journey into personal development. Through a seamless blend of philosophical dialogues, allegorical narratives, and psychological concepts, the book weaves an engaging exploration that appeals to both the mind and the heart. The author adeptly delves into themes such as perception, self-mastery, and the hero’s journey, showcasing a profound grasp of psychological processes and their influence on human behavior. For those navigating the complexities of personal growth, the trilogy offers a transformative odyssey, illustrating that resilience and self-discovery are universal quests that resonate with individuals seeking to overcome inner challenges and doubts.

This trilogy serves as a reflection for military veterans and first responders, echoing their sacrifices, camaraderie, and sense of purpose. The themes of adversity, seeking guidance, and embracing healing closely align with their experiences, providing a source of inspiration for those who have selflessly protected and served others.

For patriots and believers who hold their values dear, the trilogy presents character-driven narratives that mirror their dedication to higher principles. Exploring community, unity, and personal growth, the books align with their desire to positively contribute to society and reinforce the significance of collective well-being.

Fatherless individuals and young explorers identify with the trilogy’s portrayal of quests for identity and meaning. The characters’ journeys from uncertainty to self-assuredness reflect the universal process of finding one’s place in the world, motivating young minds to navigate life’s puzzles with courage and determination.

Moreover, experts in fields from psychology and storytelling to stoic and biblical philosophy will appreciate the trilogy’s profound concepts interwoven with relatable narratives. The author’s mastery is evident in crafting a work that appeals to intellectual and emotional sensibilities alike.

Throughout the trilogy, Daniel’s transformation serves as a relatable and inspiring narrative. His evolution from a curious seeker hindered by cognitive biases to a self-aware individual confronting inner doubts resonates deeply with readers.

In a world valuing personal growth, camaraderie, service, purpose, and self-discovery, the Scotomaville Trilogy stands as proof of storytelling’s power to connect, inspire, and transform. Its pages offer lessons, insights, and reflections embracing the shared human experience, making it an essential read for individuals from all walks of life. In conclusion, the trilogy’s rich philosophical discussions, relatable character arcs, and insightful exploration of cognitive biases contribute significantly to the fields of psychology and personal development.

Please express any correlation between my list of strengths, and a robust list of human virtues. Analyze the union of the two for shared characteristics and a deeper meaning.

Certainly! Let’s look at the intersection between the specific strengths from the Clifton StrengthsFinder that you provided (Achiever, Input, Learner, Activator, Belief) and a traditional list of virtues such as wisdom, courage, humanity, justice, temperance, and transcendence.

ACHIEVER

Virtue Correlation: Courage, Justice

Explanation: Achievers have a constant drive for accomplishing tasks. This can correlate with the virtue of courage, which involves persistence and vitality, and justice, where hard work and fairness contribute to the overall good of the community.

INPUT

Virtue Correlation: Courage, Justice

Explanation: Activators are inclined to take action and want to make things happen. This aligns with courage, as it requires the boldness to initiate, and justice, where action may be directed towards equality and fairness.

BELIEF

Virtue Correlation: Transcendence, Justice

Explanation: The Belief strength is connected to core values and purpose. It aligns with transcendence, where there is a connection to something greater, and justice, where values often include fairness and equality.

Summary of Union (Intersection):

The union between these strengths and virtues reveals a strong emphasis on wisdom (through Input and Learner), courage (through Achiever and Activator), and justice (through Achiever, Activator, and Belief). The values of humanity and transcendence are also present but to a lesser extent.

This analysis suggests that a person with these strengths might be particularly well-suited for roles that require insightful judgment, bold action, and a strong sense of fairness and values. They may excel in leadership roles, educational fields, advocacy, or any area where wisdom, courage, and justice are paramount.

REVIEWS

Sarah Little-Turnbull

You know well of Sarah's talent. She designed the N-95 mask. She conceived of Halmark's tied ribbon bow, and CorningWare. She was a fabulous mentor.

"Daniel is a conceptual thinker who has the ability to implement his ideas with a spectrum of skills. His work represents a unique combination of abilities executed with reliability and great ingenuity. I recommend him very highly."

is known for his "Galloping Gourmet" television series and > 29 books. He's a charismatic facilitator of solutions for human indulgence.

"Daniel is continually creative. He has an excellent eye for light, form and texture and an ear for understanding his client's needs. Daniel is an unusual blend of Artist, Technician, Craftsman and Servant who can easily become a partner in your creative process."

Dean Rush

Dean has had distinguished military and business careers, and is the Author of Flying Free. "Daniel Comp is one of the most innovative people I have ever known. I've watched Daniel overcome great obstacles and stick to a vision of making a difference for people. He is personable and doesn't quit until the job is done. I highly recommend Daniel and his wife, Angelina."

2x Awarded by U.S. Small Business Administration, TV/Radio Host/Speaker, a fabulous business partner, wife and my best friend. "I've witnessed Daniel's evolution from a wounded, angry man into a mentally and emotionally mature gentleman. He leads other men with competence and confidence from his own transformation and experience."

Charlie Duke

"As an Astronaut (Apollo 16 Lunar Module Pilot & 10th man on the Moon). I was very familiar with powerful planes and rockets. I've learned to trust my life and business on great tools and competent people. Daniel and Angelina have put together an amazing system for small business that is technically advanced, yet doesn't take a rocket scientist to run it. I highly recommend their services - I didn't settle for anything less!"

MASTER Forrest

To Angelina Musik-Comp:

I am deeply grateful for your stamina, patience, and support as my best friend and business partner. We have traveled the curves together in good cheer. You are amazingly resilient and a joyful character to explore with. I am grateful for your gift of HEALING matching my expression of UNDERSTANDING!

To you, the reader, and participant:

When I imagined this project, I had a hunch the cost would be years of commitment - but not five years. What you might not imagine is that it took me far less time and angst to create the Wellness by Choice syndication, and the Scotomaville syndication of nearly twenty five thousand websites. And now we have AI.

I believe “The Greatest Expedition you will ever undertake is the journey to self-understanding, for the real voyage of discovery consists not in seeking new lands, but in seeing with new eyes.”. Fortunately AI still lacks subjective experiences, emotions, and self-reflective awareness - and thus our superpower of story-telling may yet be an error correcting trim-tab for super intelligent reasoning engines.

Cheers to YOUR Greatest Expedition!
