AN INTERACTIVE - AI GUIDED - SELF-MASTERY EXPEDITION FOR LEAVING

SCOTOMAVILLE

The desire to understand ourselves, to unravel the mystery of WIDWID—Why I Do What I Do—connects us all. It’s a question I have pursued by cycling across America on three inspiring Journeys with a Purpose.

After decades of mishaps and 50,000 miles dragging an Airstream I no longer view Know Thyself as a luxury or a full-out competition with AI. With a team of like-minded thinkers (a self-defined minyan) empowered by a super-reasoning engine, I am becoming a thought leader and a sage celebrating the later execution phases of my Personal Everest with the help of a digital Sherpa.

Remember your first journey? I was hopeful yet unprepared, like a Fiat 500 strapped with a useless burden on my back. At first, this image represented my idealistic youthful exploration, a journey both underpowered and naive. Recently, I discovered a double meaning in the word ‘Fiat’ itself. Beyond the name of a car, it refers to a decree, an authoritative commandment. In my journey, these were the self-imposed life commandments from false conclusions I formed of misspoken judgments that had shaped my worldview. It was as if the very mascot of my exploration challenged me to escape the self-tyranny of my thinking. W.H. Murray noted we experience ‘all manner of unforeseen incidents and meetings and material assistance, which no man could have dreamt would have come his way.’ The discovery of the Fiat’s symbolic richness was one such unforeseen incident that deepened my journey.

Let Scotomaville guide you on your ‘Personal Everest,’ empowering you to share your wisdom and warning and to muster the courage to champion the rapidly accelerating changes we face. Join me by turning the life you inherited into the outcomes you design.

SCOTOMAVILLE ABSTRACT

■ BACKGROUND - WWDWWD

Most people respond to chaos and stress with coping mechanisms, amygdala hijackings, and reactive behavior. For some of us, curiosity dominates. We want to know “Why We Do What We Do.” and are committed to exploring the unknown... to ‘Know Thyself’. The Author cycled across America three times asking this.

The pandemic has challenged us with hardships, losses, setbacks, missed opportunities, and personal drama. ⁽¹⁾ Americans are weary of rapidly accelerating change.

We are flooded with messaging that games our biological and psychological bents ⁽²⁾. Emotions easily overwhelm our reasoning to control our actions. We’re further conflicted by being 100% wrong 50% of the time. ⁽³⁾ ⁽⁴⁾

We’re hoodwinked and bamboozled by tech, media, and popular narratives using trickery, flattery, and omission. ⁽⁵⁾ The adage to ‘Know Thyself’ is no longer a luxury. It’s become a full-out competition with supercomputers pointed at our brains. ⁽⁶⁾

■ METHODS - IMPARTATION

The Scotomaville program deploys the unique IMPARTATION METHODOLOGY, designed to guide participants in self-reflection and personal growth through video modeling. This methodology unfolds in a structured manner:

I Do - You Watch:

Drawing from our extensive experience as pioneers in the media, marketing, and web technology sectors since 1997, we video-journal our personal ‘journey with purpose’. Through these recordings, we share and demonstrate 15 invaluable mental tools, tests, and insights that enable resilience in facing challenges. Participants, armed with just a smartphone, can emulate our perseverance as we navigate adversities such as Traumatic Brain Injury, PTSD, and more.

We Do - We Watch:

The program is more than just watching; it’s engaging. Fifty-three episodes are complemented by a comprehensive 400+ page guide, enriched with opportunities for online discussions. Subscribers benefit from peer support, mentoring, and personalized guidance. Furthermore, the extensive digital reach, spanning over 4500 affiliated websites, allows for participant and sponsor recognition.

You Do - I Watch:

The Scotomaville journey doesn’t end with passive learning. Upcoming offerings include transformative base camp summits, private retreats, and expeditions for leaders. With the program’s licensed platform, certified leaders can guide individuals and groups, encouraging them to tread the transformative path we demonstrate.

■ FINDINGS - SELF-GAMING

By climbing a ‘Personal Everest’ and testing for oneself, the claims of W.H. Murray, and the Authors that Expeditions are filled with “unforeseen incidents and meetings and material assistance, which no one could have dreamt would have come their way” ⁽⁹⁾ you can develop clarity, stability, healing, and successes by gaming your biases.

Self-mastery begins with awareness of one’s physical and mental self. When combined with understanding, support, and discipline, incremental character change transforms one’s beliefs, attitudes, and behavior.

SCOTOMAVILLE reveals the intricate interdependence between our gut and brain, demonstrating how sleep patterns and stress levels influence our choices. By emphasizing the perils of tackling challenges solo and showcasing actionable insights and examples, the program empowers individuals to recognize and navigate their inherent cognitive biases.

■ CONCLUSION - PERSONAL EVEREST

A ‘Personal Everest’ is a journey with a purpose. “But at least learn your inability... and ask the remedy for it. Learn of those who have been bound like you... These are people who know the way which you would follow, and who are cured of an ill of which you would be cured. Follow the way by which they began...”

Blaise Pascal - Pascals Wager ⁽¹⁰⁾

A Personal Everest is a journey with a purpose. It is a self-defined expedition of personal development, with support and guidance from peers and the Author, and analysis by AI.

SCOTOMAVILLE is an unconventional and effective self-help model and platform with a convincing challenge: We can change our life experiences by gaming our own handicaps, strengthening alliances, challenging our shortcomings and changing our false beliefs by taking on our Personal Everest.

AUTHORS NOTE: IT'S 67° AT 4:12 P.M. NOV. 22, 2021

We're enjoying the warm Texas weather and light breeze with most of our Airstream windows open. Upwind, Sue and her husband are enjoying their mesquite campfire. (below) They thought the smoke would 'stream' around us. That's cute. I thought they'd find it 'quirky' that I'm editing this print chapter on EXPECTATIONS wearing an N95!

Recorded Sept. 13, 2020, Hood River, OR

EX-PEC-TA-TION: A STRONG BELIEF THAT SOMETHING WILL HAPPEN OR BE THE CASE IN THE FUTURE - THAT YOU WILL OR SHOULD ACHIEVE SOMETHING.

Pop quiz. What do you see?

Pointing to my face mask, yes, it's an N-95.

Second question. Why am I wearing this outside? Look for the smoke. Look for the sun.

I have unmet expectations and strong emotions. But, I'm getting ahead. Let's back up.

I've heard that the true test of genius is to explain complex things in simple terms. I can't say that I'm about to do that, but I want you to think about complicated things.

You've likely heard that saying that goes: "when life gives you lemons, make lemonade." So let's think about that for a second.

Is it possible to make lemonade out of lemons? Methinks no. The best you'll get is pure lemon juice. But, to make lemonade, you need additional ingredients and tools. You need something to cut the lemon. You need a container. You need water and sugar, or it's going to be tart. And, you need something to drink it out of - if you're going to share.

TIMING and THINKING: Remember Neil deGrasse Tyson. "It's not WHAT you think that matters. It's HOW you think". I appreciate how my thinking has matured over the past year.

An expectation of making lemonade requires more than tart lemons - it needs the insight gained by failures - that's maturity - or guidance from those that have experience.

"Sure Daniel, I see your optimism and encouragement, but your life seems to be a bunch of hardships through mishaps and blind-spots."

I hear you. Here's an example of how things tend to work out for me. I found a solution to a problem not by forcing one, rather I anticipated one as the outcome of 'learning' by asking, listening, and watching.

SLEUTHING A SOLUTION

Alex Laudon (previous Episode) said, "Daniel, the thing that's holding you back is your equipment. The wing on your foil is... slightly smaller than what you need to learn on. We've been able to develop better-balanced gear and so what you need is a much bigger wing for you to have a stable jibe at lower speeds."

So I called Peter Lederer, who made my LP foil, discovering they're back-logged with production and supply delays. It would be after this season before I'd get a larger wing made.

I had no idea how I would go about getting what Keith was holding. (below)

Watch how this happened and mimic me.

Thank you Keith. The wing works great for me. Your efforts and investment are being 'passed forward' to the reader this very moment!

Believing I needed a larger wing, and anticipating that something would happen, I expanded my awareness. I was NOT going to force a solution; instead, I looked for insight.

FOILED BY KEITH FREDRICKSON

Daniel: Keith, thanks for sharing in this Episode. You've done something highly unusual in today's world - which is to trust a stranger (me) while delivering a solution. Please share what you've been through to do this for me.

Keith: I decided to get into foiling in late 2018 after my third knee surgery from windsurfing. Wind-foiling looks like a crossover. Peter Lederer is making these here in the Gorge. I bought a foil with strut, fuselage, and wings.

I went to Stevenson (a local launch site), rigged my gear, put my wetsuit on, and went out on the river. Unfortunately, I had forgotten the retaining bolts. I sailed about 25 yards when the entire foil pulled out of my board and sank to the bottom of the river.

What could I do? Well, I hired a scuba diver. I spent 200 bucks, and he couldn't find it even with three hours looking, so I gave up and bought another foil (very expensive).

Three weeks later, the scuba diver said, "I don't want to give up on that foil. How about you give me 400 bucks, and even if I spend all year looking, you owe me nothing more."

I said; that's a no-lose deal. Long story short, I now have two foils.

One day, I was at Jensen Beach, and here came Daniel, asking about my LP foil. I have a more recent foil model than Daniel's earlier

"We've got to make this work. We're all connected. It's my belief that if you help somebody out it'll turn out well in the end."

Keith Fredrickson

model. In addition, my foil has a bigger front wing. As a result, it's friendlier to ride.

I made Daniel an offer, and here we are.

Daniel: "Keith, I appreciate your effort and investment retrieving it because it turns out this larger wing is a solution to my riding problem - one I can't resolve alone. You know Alex. He said: "Daniel, it's your gear that is holding you back." And here is the wing that I've needed.

Thank you so much for your anguish and patience and for bringing me a solution.

Keith: "Hey, you know we've got to make this work. We're all connected. I believe that if you help somebody out, it'll turn out well in the end, so I hope you enjoy the foil."

Daniel: It turns out that Keith's character and generosity, combined with an unexpected loss, and with the diver's perseverance, on top of Alex's guidance, all became a solution.

I believe you can sleuth solutions like this. I have recorded dozens of stories about collaboration, goodwill, and best outcomes across America. Give it a try. Anticipate progress.

EMOTIONS OF UNMET EXPECTATIONS:
I felt disappointed, let down, cheated, annoyed and irritable, largely due to events out of my control.

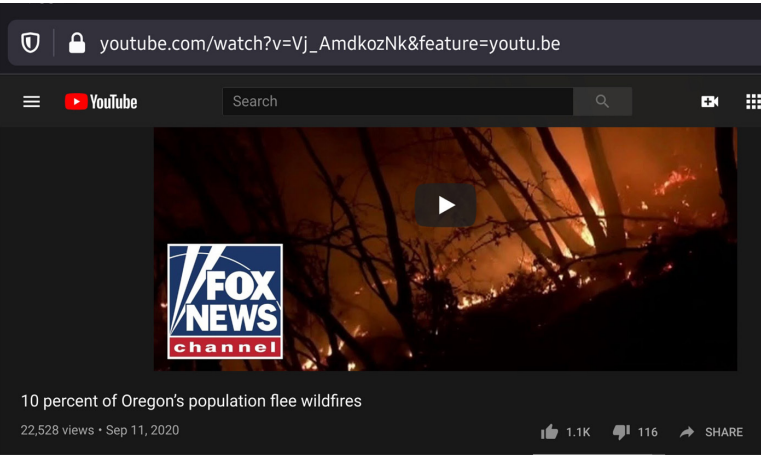

I believe the 15 mental tools in Volume One will help you do likewise with your Personal Everest. Apply the tools to:

- 1) recognize opportunities*
- 2) transform your thinking*
- 3) change your beliefs and*
- 4) build better experiences with the circumstances that come your way.*

When I say; “life has curves,” I mean that solutions are often buried within simple stories. Consider nuts. They hide inside a shell protected by a hungry squirrel.

FIRE AND SMOKE ON TOP OF COVID

My intent for the SCOTOMAVILLE Series is to give you evidence of my use of the mental tools and techniques - for you to observe my journey of self-awareness - and to mimic me. I’m not scripting the examples. I’m simply recording.

This is my usual launch site (above) with this season coming to an end. There are roughly ten days of sailing left, but we can’t play outdoors due to the smoke. So our expectation of celebrating on the water are confounded.

It’s about noon on September 11th, 2020 - an anniversary of the 9-11 terrorist attacks. The news today has wildfires across the entire west coast. (left) Ten percent of the Oregon population is displaced. They weren’t expecting fires and smoke on top of COVID.

Unmet expectations are an invitation to open your self-awareness toolbox. The next time something doesn’t pan out for you, try responding by expanding your emotional vocabulary or peeling an onion to understand the root belief behind the intense emotions.

MASTER THE EMOTIONAL WORD LIST:
Like holding an ice ax, you can arrest a decent ‘fall’ and avoid injury by mastering an emotional vocabulary before, during, and after each ‘slip’.

Please help me express this in simpler terms:

Certainly! Here’s a more straightforward way to express the original text:

“My best quality is being an ‘Achiever.’ I can work hard, even overnight, to complete tasks. Although it was hard for me, I had to learn to recognize and describe my emotions better. My knowledge of emotional words was weak, and I needed to improve it before facing another disappointing situation that could stir up negative emotions.

To grow in understanding myself, I had to deal with triggers, which are sudden emotional reactions that can confuse your mind. It can be hard to find the right words to explain what’s bothering you at that moment. So, take time to learn new words to express your feelings.”

ACQUIRE A REFINED VOCABULARY

Providence moves once you are fully committed to changing. Initiate change, by expanding your emotional distinction with literacy.

A refined vocabulary leads toward confidence and away from outbursts and squalls.

Tom Drummond, North Seattle Community College

Unmet expectations are usually a gateway to personal growth - the road less taken I believe. I highly recommend exploring an emotionally rich vocabulary well in advance of the need to friggin scream!

Watch the next two scenes carefully.

UNBOXING EXPECTATIONS

A few weeks ago, I had an excellent opportunity to unbox my first Volume of SCOTOMAVILLE. Of course, I wanted to do the classic YouTube ‘unboxing,’ but there were non-stop interruptions and noise and poeple along with a boatload of emotion...

(loud cars and bikes interrupt)

Angelina asks, “are you OK?”

Daniel: No, I’m exasperated, flustered, and pegged. This outdoor mask mandate is disgusting. I hate this.

(taking N95 mask off)

It’s suffocating - especially outdoors. I’m not doing this.

I understand the science - the size of the virus and the mask materials at three microns - 95% reduction. But, I just wanted to celebrate my first unboxing in a quiet place - and not like this. Not with a mask and strangers jumping into the scene, making gestures, and distracting.

INVITATION TO INVESTIGATE

When you’re triggered, think of it as an invitation to investigate. When an expectation has not been met, dig in. It’s an opportunity to discover more of who you are. You’ve got a super computer pointed at your brain. Use it to know yourself better than it knows you. The race is on.

THERE ARE SUPERCOMPUTERS POINTED AT OUR HEADS. ‘KNOW THYSELF’ IS NO LONGER A LUXURY. FOR THE FIRST TIME IN HISTORY IT’S A FULL-OUT COMPETITION.

IF YOU BELIEVE THAT “WHEN THE STUDENT IS READY, THE TEACHER WILL APPEAR” THEN A TRIGGERING SITUATION WILL INCLUDE PEOPLE UNAWARE THAT YOU ARE TRYING TO STUDY. APPRECIATE THEM.

That’s something to think about. From the Ford studios in SCOTOMAVILLE.

See you next Episode. [closing music]

I could not have imagined this scene, shot the next day. I’m not smart enough to script this stuff. Remember what W. H. Murray observed? (page 174)

KNOCK, KNOCK. WHO’S THERE NOW?

Angelina: We’re on a chair lift at Mountain Hood Meadows. Look at how pretty it without the snow replaced by beautiful wildflowers surrounding us.

Daniel: We are definitely not in ‘Purgatory’ and we’re above all the smoke and haze.

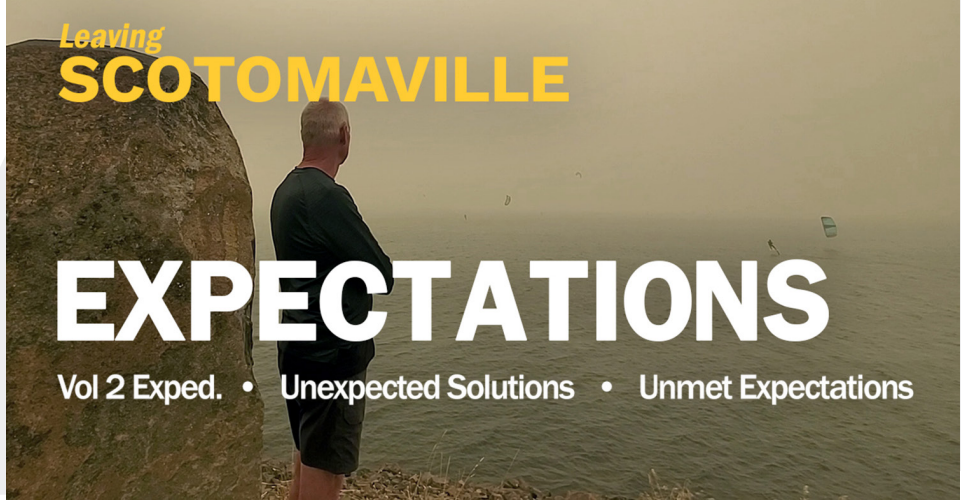

Angelina: It’s beautiful. The flower blossoms and the buzzing bees are in heaven.

Sitting with Angelina, I launch the drone, but unknown to us, two young men have climbed on top of the chair lift that we are recording from. I pan up...

Daniel: Arghh@! Expectations!@#. Why are there always people in my shots?

ONUS PROBANDI:

While I’m triggered by unwanted people in my drone shot, I didn’t recognize or value the “unforeseen incidents and meetings... which no one could have dreamt would have come their way,”. In other words, I missed an opportunity to be grateful, to celebrate the beauty with Angelina.

DISCUSS

You know the gig. Share your thoughts, insights, and get peer feedback, and author support.

I recorded the previous two scenes for episode 02.03 within the 86th Youtube upload - nearly three years after starting. I'm now editing the Third Edition of this book with 143 videos. The two closing scenes capture how insidious arrested development, cognitive biases, coping mechanisms, and reactive behavior are. But, they also show something marvelous. They offer extraordinary evidence, by which you and I can observe transformation.

I propose there's a dance we can do with an invisible world. Maybe it's simply a meaning I've given to make sense of chaos - but I invite you to test the idea yourself. I believe families can be healed with effort made on our future-self.

Follow in the way which I began. Document your journey.

“Scotomaville” takes readers on an introspective journey into personal development. Through a seamless blend of philosophical dialogues, allegorical narratives, and psychological concepts, the book weaves an engaging exploration that appeals to both the mind and the heart. The author adeptly delves into themes such as perception, self-mastery, and the hero’s journey, showcasing a profound grasp of psychological processes and their influence on human behavior. For those navigating the complexities of personal growth, the trilogy offers a transformative odyssey, illustrating that resilience and self-discovery are universal quests that resonate with individuals seeking to overcome inner challenges and doubts.

This trilogy serves as a reflection for military veterans and first responders, echoing their sacrifices, camaraderie, and sense of purpose. The themes of adversity, seeking guidance, and embracing healing closely align with their experiences, providing a source of inspiration for those who have selflessly protected and served others.

For patriots and believers who hold their values dear, the trilogy presents character-driven narratives that mirror their dedication to higher principles. Exploring community, unity, and personal growth, the books align with their desire to positively contribute to society and reinforce the significance of collective well-being.

Fatherless individuals and young explorers identify with the trilogy’s portrayal of quests for identity and meaning. The characters’ journeys from uncertainty to self-assuredness reflect the universal process of finding one’s place in the world, motivating young minds to navigate life’s puzzles with courage and determination.

Moreover, experts in fields from psychology and storytelling to stoic and biblical philosophy will appreciate the trilogy’s profound concepts interwoven with relatable narratives. The author’s mastery is evident in crafting a work that appeals to intellectual and emotional sensibilities alike.

Throughout the trilogy, Daniel’s transformation serves as a relatable and inspiring narrative. His evolution from a curious seeker hindered by cognitive biases to a self-aware individual confronting inner doubts resonates deeply with readers.

In a world valuing personal growth, camaraderie, service, purpose, and self-discovery, the Scotomaville Trilogy stands as proof of storytelling’s power to connect, inspire, and transform. Its pages offer lessons, insights, and reflections embracing the shared human experience, making it an essential read for individuals from all walks of life. In conclusion, the trilogy’s rich philosophical discussions, relatable character arcs, and insightful exploration of cognitive biases contribute significantly to the fields of psychology and personal development.

Please express any correlation between my list of strengths, and a robust list of human virtues. Analyze the union of the two for shared characteristics and a deeper meaning.

Certainly! Let’s look at the intersection between the specific strengths from the Clifton StrengthsFinder that you provided (Achiever, Input, Learner, Activator, Belief) and a traditional list of virtues such as wisdom, courage, humanity, justice, temperance, and transcendence.

ACHIEVER

Virtue Correlation: Courage, Justice

Explanation: Achievers have a constant drive for accomplishing tasks. This can correlate with the virtue of courage, which involves persistence and vitality, and justice, where hard work and fairness contribute to the overall good of the community.

INPUT

Virtue Correlation: Wisdom

Explanation: People with the Input strength have a craving to know more, collecting and archiving information. This resonates with wisdom, which is characterized by a pursuit of knowledge and insightful judgment.

LEARNER

Virtue Correlation: Wisdom, Humanity

Explanation: A constant desire to improve and learn aligns with the virtue of wisdom. It may also align with humanity if the learning is directed towards understanding others and improving social bonds.

ACTIVATOR

Virtue Correlation: Courage, Justice

Explanation: Activators are inclined to take action and want to make things happen. This aligns with courage, as it requires the boldness to initiate, and justice, where action may be directed towards equality and fairness.

BELIEF

Virtue Correlation: Transcendence, Justice

Explanation: The Belief strength is connected to core values and purpose. It aligns with transcendence, where there is a connection to something greater, and justice, where values often include fairness and equality.

Summary of Union (Intersection):

The union between these strengths and virtues reveals a strong emphasis on wisdom (through Input and Learner), courage (through Achiever and Activator), and justice (through Achiever, Activator, and Belief). The values of humanity and transcendence are also present but to a lesser extent.

This analysis suggests that a person with these strengths might be particularly well-suited for roles that require insightful judgment, bold action, and a strong sense of fairness and values. They may excel in leadership roles, educational fields, advocacy, or any area where wisdom, courage, and justice are paramount.

MASTER Forrest

To Angelina Musik-Comp:

I am deeply grateful for your stamina, patience, and support as my best friend and business partner. We have traveled the curves together in good cheer. You are amazingly resilient and a joyful character to explore with. I am grateful for your gift of HEALING matching my expression of UNDERSTANDING!

To you, the reader, and participant:

When I imagined this project, I had a hunch the cost would be years of commitment - but not five years. What you might not imagine is that it took me far less time and angst to create the Wellness by Choice syndication, and the Scotomaville syndication of nearly twenty five thousand websites. And now we have AI.

I believe “The Greatest Expedition you will ever undertake is the journey to self-understanding, for the real voyage of discovery consists not in seeking new lands, but in seeing with new eyes.”. Fortunately AI still lacks subjective experiences, emotions, and self-reflective awareness - and thus our superpower of story-telling may yet be an error correcting trim-tab for super intelligent reasoning engines.

Cheers to YOUR Greatest Expedition!
