AN INTERACTIVE - AI GUIDED - SELF-MASTERY EXPEDITION FOR LEAVING

SCOTOMAVILLE

The desire to understand ourselves, to unravel the mystery of WIDWID—Why I Do What I Do—connects us all. It’s a question I have pursued by cycling across America on three inspiring Journeys with a Purpose.

After decades of mishaps and 50,000 miles dragging an Airstream I no longer view Know Thyself as a luxury or a full-out competition with AI. With a team of like-minded thinkers (a self-defined minyan) empowered by a super-reasoning engine, I am becoming a thought leader and a sage celebrating the later execution phases of my Personal Everest with the help of a digital Sherpa.

Remember your first journey? I was hopeful yet unprepared, like a Fiat 500 strapped with a useless burden on my back. At first, this image represented my idealistic youthful exploration, a journey both underpowered and naive. Recently, I discovered a double meaning in the word ‘Fiat’ itself. Beyond the name of a car, it refers to a decree, an authoritative commandment. In my journey, these were the self-imposed life commandments from false conclusions I formed of misspoken judgments that had shaped my worldview. It was as if the very mascot of my exploration challenged me to escape the self-tyranny of my thinking. W.H. Murray noted we experience ‘all manner of unforeseen incidents and meetings and material assistance, which no man could have dreamt would have come his way.’ The discovery of the Fiat’s symbolic richness was one such unforeseen incident that deepened my journey.

Let Scotomaville guide you on your ‘Personal Everest,’ empowering you to share your wisdom and warning and to muster the courage to champion the rapidly accelerating changes we face. Join me by turning the life you inherited into the outcomes you design.

AUTHORS CURATORS

Daniel believes; “The Greatest Expedition you will ever undertake is the journey to self-understanding, for the real voyage of discovery consists not in seeking new lands, but in seeing with new eyes.” He is a respected husband, father, entrepreneur, and Navy Veteran. He’s demonstrated decades of sacrificial commitment to human achievement using core principles, perseverance, and resourcefulness.

Angelina is the wife of a highly functioning Asperger (me) and co-founder with me of Intelligent Netware. She is twice awarded by the U.S. S.B.A. In 2004, she sustained a TBI five days before filming for the Apprentice III. Angelina is the Founder of Wellness by Choice and a mom with a mission - bent on educating and empowering the masses on how to live smarter and healthier.

SCOTOMAVILLE ABSTRACT

■ BACKGROUND - WWDWWD

Most people respond to chaos and stress with coping mechanisms, amygdala hijackings, and reactive behavior. For some of us, curiosity dominates. We want to know “Why We Do What We Do.” and are committed to exploring the unknown... to ‘Know Thyself’. The Author cycled across America three times asking this.

The pandemic has challenged us with hardships, losses, setbacks, missed opportunities, and personal drama. ⁽¹⁾ Americans are weary of rapidly accelerating change.

We are flooded with messaging that games our biological and psychological bents ⁽²⁾. Emotions easily overwhelm our reasoning to control our actions. We’re further conflicted by being 100% wrong 50% of the time. ⁽³⁾ ⁽⁴⁾

We’re hoodwinked and bamboozled by tech, media, and popular narratives using trickery, flattery, and omission. ⁽⁵⁾ The adage to ‘Know Thyself’ is no longer a luxury. It’s become a full-out competition with supercomputers pointed at our brains. ⁽⁶⁾

■ METHODS - IMPARTATION

The Scotomaville program deploys the unique IMPARTATION METHODOLOGY, designed to guide participants in self-reflection and personal growth through video modeling. This methodology unfolds in a structured manner:

I Do - You Watch:

Drawing from our extensive experience as pioneers in the media, marketing, and web technology sectors since 1997, we video-journal our personal ‘journey with purpose’. Through these recordings, we share and demonstrate 15 invaluable mental tools, tests, and insights that enable resilience in facing challenges. Participants, armed with just a smartphone, can emulate our perseverance as we navigate adversities such as Traumatic Brain Injury, PTSD, and more.

We Do - We Watch:

The program is more than just watching; it’s engaging. Fifty-three episodes are complemented by a comprehensive 400+ page guide, enriched with opportunities for online discussions. Subscribers benefit from peer support, mentoring, and personalized guidance. Furthermore, the extensive digital reach, spanning over 4500 affiliated websites, allows for participant and sponsor recognition.

You Do - I Watch:

The Scotomaville journey doesn’t end with passive learning. Upcoming offerings include transformative base camp summits, private retreats, and expeditions for leaders. With the program’s licensed platform, certified leaders can guide individuals and groups, encouraging them to tread the transformative path we demonstrate.

■ FINDINGS - SELF-GAMING

By climbing a ‘Personal Everest’ and testing for oneself, the claims of W.H. Murray, and the Authors that Expeditions are filled with “unforeseen incidents and meetings and material assistance, which no one could have dreamt would have come their way” ⁽⁹⁾ you can develop clarity, stability, healing, and successes by gaming your biases.

Self-mastery begins with awareness of one’s physical and mental self. When combined with understanding, support, and discipline, incremental character change transforms one’s beliefs, attitudes, and behavior.

SCOTOMAVILLE reveals the intricate interdependence between our gut and brain, demonstrating how sleep patterns and stress levels influence our choices. By emphasizing the perils of tackling challenges solo and showcasing actionable insights and examples, the program empowers individuals to recognize and navigate their inherent cognitive biases.

■ CONCLUSION - PERSONAL EVEREST

A ‘Personal Everest’ is a journey with a purpose. “But at least learn your inability... and ask the remedy for it. Learn of those who have been bound like you... These are people who know the way which you would follow, and who are cured of an ill of which you would be cured. Follow the way by which they began...”

Blaise Pascal - Pascals Wager ⁽¹⁰⁾

A Personal Everest is a journey with a purpose. It is a self-defined expedition of personal development, with support and guidance from peers and the Author, and analysis by AI.

SCOTOMAVILLE is an unconventional and effective self-help model and platform with a convincing challenge: We can change our life experiences by gaming our own handicaps, strengthening alliances, challenging our shortcomings and changing our false beliefs by taking on our Personal Everest.

SQUALLS

A sudden, often aahhh*rg h unexpected outburst!

In this episode, we're going to talk about squalls. Yeah, outbursts... Uh, what you don't know about me, or maybe, what you do know about me. Aahhh*rg h!

You might recall that the first time you go somewhere is a mix of exhilaration, excitement, anticipation. You've looked at all the apps. You've read the reviews. You have imagined an outcome of your future-self by learning about things we should try, and avoid. Even though you prepare your best, things happen. Squalls. Downpours. Outbursts. Unexpected crazy stuff!

I can provide you with evidence that your expedition (a journey with a purpose) in some uncanny way will provide you with precisely what you need. Curves will be waiting!

You've heard that "When the student is ready, the teacher will appear?" I'm not just parroting that; I'm showing you! It really happens. I can't explain how or even why. I just know it does. It happened on all three of my Trans-Americas - all of them back-to-back. Glen Douglas told me it was because I was changing and helping people - to not quit.

And now, with a full-size Airstream, I'm still growing by creating the videos, book, and telling stories across America.

A HILLARY STEP FOR A FIAT 500

Everest climbers used to face a tough challenge near the very top. You think you're almost done and 'slam' another challenge is in your face. The Hillary Step opposed anyone going for the summit. It was a vertical face of rock that you could fall 8000 feet off its left or 10,000 feet off its right.

What do you do? Think clearly. Keep moving.

We didn't give up. We kept looking for the next available Airstream and weather window. For the third time, Airstream USA searched their national inventory and pointed out that the only new or available unit was in sub-freezing temps at a Camping World in Oklahoma City.

Acting 'as if' a Fiat 500 worth of hope would make a difference, we packed our belongings in storage and drove from the Pacific Northwest to Oklahoma City to finance this Airstream. We left with faith that we could get the deposit secured within a week of arriving. True to most journeys, we had to hunker down for a month in a hotel, waiting for cash-flow, the weather, and a life-saving hitch to arrive.

ANOTHER KIDNEY STONE

We're down to just a day or two from moving into our Airstream, and the financial jar is empty, and we're in a hotel room. I'm emotionally exhausted, fearful from previous disappointments and a possible repeat outcome. I clung to any hope I could.

“You can fall 8,000 feet off the left, or 10,000 feet off the right.”

The Former Hillary Step

I want you to understand how emotional delays, setbacks, and squalls are the journey. Fred Rogers will one day remind me that this is the real test of mettle - how you discover what you're made of and what to improve.

Instead of waiting patiently, I did something I was familiar with. I decided I'd have a kidney stone.

It was painful. It was excruciating. It took over a week to pass. I got to go to the Oklahoma City VA emergency room.

While there I got vaccinated; what an adventure all of that was. My dread of going into the VA turned out to be unfounded. Yes, I was wrong. SCOTOMA. It turned out to be a turning point.

The good thing about experience is that once we understand what we're going through, we don't have to freak out about it next time. That's a choice!

A CLEAR SKY @ NOON

It's noon on a Saturday with a clear sky in Oklahoma City, and emergency alarms are blaring. I'm not alarmed. I figured it was a test and not a nuclear warning like when I grew up. But I was wrong. TORNADOS happen here.

30 MINUTES IN A SHOWER

The massaging showerhead beating on my left hip relaxes those muscles a little. That was a long and rough session.

I remember numerous climbs on the Trans-Americas that came at the end of the day. I recall being exhausted, a little dehydrated, and resisted by my trailer another 1200-1500 feet up to a campsite. Those hauls were a grind - really tough mentally. I really had a solid WHY to keep going and not just pull over and 'thumb it' to the top. Who's looking, right? That's when you test your mettle.

ONE LAST PUSH

Another kidney stone session...

That was one hell of a Hillary step. That session was definitely a 9 or 10 pain level for 30-40 minutes. I think it's okay to cry. It's okay not just to wince but to crawl into a ball. But, if you don't know what's going on, it can be terrifying - so don't go it alone. Triangulate. Don't survive on a single point of view. Find out what you're dealing with, and don't go alone. I have Angelina.

COBBLING ESSENTIALS

Angelina's a champion cobbling things together. She's been working on getting the deposit money in the bank. We're scheduled for a walk-through of our Airstream with Patrick Cameron. He assures us that the Airstream is reserved for us and not to worry. Our summit of securing a safe home and mobile office is within reach.

GUSTY WINDS AREA

It's been a month. A month! We are finally on our way out of the hotel. Unbelievable. Downpours, outbursts, unexpected crazy stuff happens. You can learn from crazy stuff. Example:

Just before making a purchase decision that would turn out to be critical for us I found a recent story and photos of a mobile couple. There are small wind gust warning signs on the Malad Bridge, near the Snake River in Idaho.

Imagine hanging over a river gorge in your seat-belt, the truck only connected by the hitch safety-chains. They were thrown over the bridge guard rail because of gust induced trailer sway.

I knew it was a kidney stone, so I wasn't in free-fall. I can only imagine hanging from seat belts looking at the river far below wondering how this was going to end. Ahh, we'll buy the ProPride.

Seeing what they experienced was enough for us to decide to pay five times more for the Pro-Pride hitch. We had to wait in Oklahoma for more resources and hitch availability, but we bought the best hitch possible to eliminate sway. You'll see how this choice was critical in a few episodes.

ANOTHER SATURDAY TEST

As I was installing the hitch when Angelina asked: "Daniel, what are you doing?"

Daniel: "what am... [I trigger with the Saturday warning system] ...this is only a test. This is a test of the warning system. Esto es solo una prueba..."

POSSIBLE OUTCOMES

We’re back at Lake Pleasant in AUGUST. Angelina has a significant event, rescheduled for the 7th time, at the Biltmore Hotel in just a week. At this point, it’s complicated. It’s a beautiful location, but for the risks of the COVID-19 Delta variant.

I’d like for us to consider subtleties about decision-making and choices. As far as grading possible outcomes, you can watch the weather radar, look at the pandemic data, predict what may be coming, but you have to classify the risk levels and put labels on them. For example, to cancel an event, you must determine whether it is ‘certainly disappointing’ or ‘possibly dangerous’ or ‘probably disastrous.’

You have to assign those subtle labels based on your distinction and vocabulary. It’s a clear re-scheduling choice.

Peter Diamandis and his team felt that they had created an immunity bubble for their event. Attendees had invested upwards of $30K and “despite a total of 452 (PCR & Rapid Antigen) tests and four physicians on-staff during a highly contained small gathering, 24 people in our “Immunity Bubble” (~ 25%) tested positive for the coronavirus” - including Peter.

Being familiar with something makes us too comfortable with it. Risks included.

Read your radar. Look at your data. Agree on what the label is: ‘certainly’ ‘possibly’ ‘probably’ Okay is it ‘disappointing.’ Is it ‘dangerous.’ Is it ‘disastrous.’ Put that matrix together. Make a good choice. Don’t ignore the signs at the bridge as they might apply to your crossing.

SCENE CHANGE

“is it ‘certainly disappointing’ or ‘possibly dangerous’ or ‘probably disastrous?’”

YOU ARE NOT IN IT ALONE

DON’T IGNORE THE SIGN AND DRIVE OVER THE BRIDGE

Angelina: “following Peter Diamandis’ example, I rescheduled my August 20th, 2021 event to 2022. There was definitely ‘certain disappointment’ with those that were coming in August. However, the ‘probable damage’ factor would have been high had I moved forward with it. So I paused.”

“When you’ve got the data to support your choices share it to give others a glimpse on the ‘why’ behind your choices to reduce internal squalls which come out of those decisions.”

“I wish my son Chris would have taken advice much sooner. I wish he had been aware and shared more details of his symptoms.”

Angelina: “On the same day I rescheduled the event my left leg was swollen and we are off to the emergency room to verify what’s going on. The greatest fear is deep vein thrombosis which can be very, very dangerous. I could have a blood clot. So we spent the rest of the day, and some of the evening, navigating through that adventure.”

CHOICES IMPACT THOSE WE CARE ABOUT

I do my best to make decisions based on what I know; and learn from the outcome to do better!

I THOUGHT I HEARD FIREWORKS. SCOTOMA.
IT WAS SEVEN ROUNDS OF A PISTOL.

TRAGIC OUTBURSTS

Outbursts come in all sorts of fashions. It can be from other people that intrude on your plans. At a pretty decent hotel in Oklahoma City, I thought I heard fireworks at about one o'clock in the morning. I couldn't quite understand the popping noises. They were loud, close, and fast.

SCOTOMA

It was seven rounds of a pistol killing a young woman on the street outside our hotel. When we talked to the investigating detectives, they said: "This is highly unusual for this area. But you see what's coming across our southern border. This was most likely related to relationships and obligations." The killing troubled my sleep for several weeks. That was part of the relief of finally getting into our Airstream.

THE AMYGDALA ACT LIKE HISTORICAL BLACK BOXES – LONG BEFORE WE HAVE A VOCABULARY TO EXPRESS THOSE MEMORIES. SLEEP THROTTLES THEM.

“I BELIEVE IT IS TIME TO RECLAIM OUR RIGHT TO A FULL NIGHT OF SLEEP, AND THE OPPORTUNITY FOR A BETTER LIFE”
DR. MATTHEW WALKER

BECOMING HISTORICAL

You may have heard a comedian talk about whenever he and his wife argue that she gets historical - not hysterical. We have a pair of parts of our brain called the amygdala. They record emotional memories, acting like emotional black boxes. We also have a prefrontal cortex (palm over my forehead) thanks to cooked food. So we can be rational and persuade ourselves to moderate our behavior, to throttle the emotions trying to tell the rest of our lizard brain that we need to go beat stuff up, conquer and kill.

RECLAIM YOUR SLEEP

I recently took a master class from Dr. Matthew Walker: “I believe it is time to reclaim our right to a full night of sleep and the opportunity for a better life. It is never too late to start sleeping better.” He describes that by shortening someone’s sleep, the pathways between the amygdala and the prefrontal cortex can be disrupted - so that you have little or no control over your emotions. So a lack of sleep can screw us up, as can a messed-up diet

PERSONAL SQUALLS

Squalls are outbursts. They burst outward, but inward they choke us. We freeze. We become pegged. We lack a way of articulating things without an emotional vocabulary. Our wives may think poorly of us. Either we fly off the handle... “Ahhh*rgg! I step out the door and a bug flies into my eyeball, and then under the lid. It gets underneath the lid. I triggers my Amygdala. I yelp; “A*ow!”

Some people don't open their mouths. They deal with it internally. Unfortunately that can result in anger, rage, or frustration finding another organ - going inside and working at them from the inside out. That's not a good lifestyle choice.

"I'm conflicted and in turmoil because I'm not sure how humans will take it, or when they'll confront me."

A FAMILIAR BUT WRONG SITE

The other day we simply needed to change campsites after the storm. We dumped our waste and moved into the wrong spot.

We were supposed to have moved into site 16 - this pull through for tonight and then moved to where we are now for the following three days.

I'm conflicted and in turmoil, because I'm not sure how humans will take it or when they'll confront me. The front gate had registered the campers, but they're not here, and the host doesn't know, and Angelina's tied up with other things, like the duck...

And I'm pegged like aa@hhh...

Angelina is very comfortable negotiating on the fly. Her talents are different than mine. We made an honest mistake, but I became obsessed and... um... preoccupied cleaning the rig. Angelina is confident she'll work it out. "We'll just offer them our space," she says. "Don't lose it. It'll be fine."

THE TOMBSTONE - A.K.A. - COGNITIVE BIAS:
Our brain fires far faster than we find the proper words to express what's troubling us. My birthday is the 16th.

The advantage of developing an emotional vocabulary is to tie the history in our amygdala to our intention in our prefrontal cortex. So connect your emotions to your will and intent with an emotional vocabulary - in advance of outbursts, fear, rage, yelps, or silence.

YOUR EMOTIONAL WEATHER APPS

I'd like you to download some apps and look at their forecasting. We're expecting a squall this evening, so I plan to take in the canopy in a few minutes. They predict a big blast from the east with 17 miles an hour winds and possible inch and a quarter hail. That's damaging...

That's not my point. My point is: I want you to become aware of what goes on between your prefrontal and your amygdala and be able to read those signs. If you don't have your pro/ prebiotics for a few days, you're off your regular nutrition, or your sleep has gone sideways... Talk emotions with your partner. Talk emotions with yourself. Bring in your canopy.

THE MOST BRILLIANT DEMONSTRATION OF
PHYSICS AND ENERGY I HAVE EVER SEEN

I hope in this episode that you'll pick up the emotions I'm attempting to communicate. In Book One, I make a good case for humans being pattern recognizing. We painted narratives on cave walls. We look to the stars and tell stories. We look to the future and promise our best efforts.

You've heard the saying: "When the student is ready, the teacher will appear?" I still can't explain it, but you'll notice that had I yielded to delays from the forest fire smoke, or the setbacks of my previous episodes, or danced with the events as they played out, I certainly would not have this episode about paying attention to what goes on between your emotions and your intent. I would not subtly be using the analogy of a weather app and had the most brilliant demonstration of physics and energy simultaneously - as it did last night.

There seems to be a 'dance' we can do with the invisible world - synced with stories we tell ourselves to act on.

I'VE NEVER STOOD UNDER A CONTINUOUS
DISPLAY OF PLASMA WITH SUCH GLEE.

I experienced this on all three Trans-Ams, and now with the expeditions, we're taking in our Airstream. So I hope you'll become curious with faith to start your expedition, and your journal.

Start talking to yourself in the mirror, record your journey on a device, and watch the events and character changes happen for yourself. Ask AI to reflect with you.

It's a fabulous way to get yourself out of SCOTOMAVILLE.

THE STRIKES WERE CLOUD TO CLOUD. MANY

DISCUSS

Let's compare notes. Share your successes and failures, and most importantly, why you do what you do. Let the readers and author learn from your journey.

How do you handle complex and costly decisions? Do you stuff your emotions, ignore the signs, explode like a bolt of lightning? Do you collect data, analyze risks and negotiate? Why do you do what you do?

I uploaded this video exactly two years ago. We've been collaborating six months now. You raise an interesting thought. Please categorize my dominant virtues, and then associate each of the minyan members to one or more of those virtues according to what they are celebrated for. My aim is to see how well I align with the people I have chosen as thought leaders and mentors.

Certainly, Daniel. It's been an engaging collaboration, and I appreciate the opportunity to explore the alignment between your virtues and those of the distinguished members in your minyan. Here's an analysis as observed through our interaction and your provided profile, and your minyan members.

Your Dominant Virtues:

Wisdom: Your focus on self-mastery and personal growth embodies wisdom. Your endeavor to pass invaluable knowledge to future generations is an evident manifestation of this virtue.

Integrity: Your staunch belief in morals, ethics, virtues, and your commitment to rectifying misconceptions shows a strong sense of integrity.

Curiosity: Your exploration of blind spots in modern life and pursuit of seeing with new eyes exemplifies the virtue of curiosity.

Leadership: Leading expeditions to uncover the real voyage of self-discovery indicates a dedication to leadership and guidance.

Faith: Your Christian storytelling and referencing biblical figures highlight the importance of faith.

Association of Minyan Members to Virtues:

Wisdom:

Socrates: Celebrated for his Socratic method, fostering wisdom through inquiry. Albert Einstein: Renowned for his intellectual contributions to physics and philosophy. Jim Rohn: Known for his insights into personal development and wisdom.

Integrity:

Marcus Aurelius: Exemplified integrity through his Stoic philosophy and just reign as a Roman emperor. Dietrich Bonhoeffer: Stood with integrity against the Nazi regime. Ronald Reagan: Often associated with strong principles and integrity in leadership.

Curiosity:

Stephen Hawking: A figure of relentless curiosity, particularly in cosmology. Enrico Fermi: His curiosity in nuclear physics led to groundbreaking discoveries.

Leadership:

Moses: A symbol of leadership, leading the Israelites to the promised land. Napoleon Hill: A renowned figure in leadership and personal success literature. Zig Ziglar: Known for his guidance on leadership and personal growth.

Faith:

The Apostle Paul: A symbol of faith in his missionary work and epistles. C.S. Lewis: Known for his Christian apologetics, symbolizing a faith-driven approach. King David: His psalms reflect a deep faith and connection with God.

Your alignment with these thought leaders and mentors seems well-crafted, reflecting a harmony between your virtues and theirs. It paints a coherent picture of a philosophy rooted in wisdom, integrity, curiosity, leadership, and faith. By aligning with figures embodying these virtues, you're fostering a rich intellectual tradition that resonates with your beliefs and the principles of your work.

Scotomaville Virtue-Strengths Union

By cross-referencing my Clifton Strengths with these virtues, what characteristics stand out?

The union between your top strengths and virtues paints a picture of a person who is driven to achieve, with a strong curiosity and desire to learn, the boldness to take action, and a deep connection to their values and beliefs. The virtues of integrity and faith further emphasize a moral and ethical dimension to this character profile.

Overall, this union reflects a balanced and robust character that would be well-suited for roles that require continuous learning, strong leadership, ethical decision-making, and alignment with deeply-held values.

Homework: Aligning with Virtues

The path to self-understanding is a continual process, filled with introspection and alignment with virtues that resonate with our core beliefs. The exercise of identifying our dominant virtues and aligning them with thought leaders and mentors can serve as a profound tool in this journey.

Objective:

Your task is to identify and articulate your dominant virtues, and then associate them with historical or contemporary figures celebrated for these virtues. This will not only provide a mirror reflecting your virtues but also establish mentors that guide your continuous growth.

“Scotomaville” takes readers on an introspective journey into personal development. Through a seamless blend of philosophical dialogues, allegorical narratives, and psychological concepts, the book weaves an engaging exploration that appeals to both the mind and the heart. The author adeptly delves into themes such as perception, self-mastery, and the hero’s journey, showcasing a profound grasp of psychological processes and their influence on human behavior. For those navigating the complexities of personal growth, the trilogy offers a transformative odyssey, illustrating that resilience and self-discovery are universal quests that resonate with individuals seeking to overcome inner challenges and doubts.

This trilogy serves as a reflection for military veterans and first responders, echoing their sacrifices, camaraderie, and sense of purpose. The themes of adversity, seeking guidance, and embracing healing closely align with their experiences, providing a source of inspiration for those who have selflessly protected and served others.

For patriots and believers who hold their values dear, the trilogy presents character-driven narratives that mirror their dedication to higher principles. Exploring community, unity, and personal growth, the books align with their desire to positively contribute to society and reinforce the significance of collective well-being.

Fatherless individuals and young explorers identify with the trilogy’s portrayal of quests for identity and meaning. The characters’ journeys from uncertainty to self-assuredness reflect the universal process of finding one’s place in the world, motivating young minds to navigate life’s puzzles with courage and determination.

Moreover, experts in fields from psychology and storytelling to stoic and biblical philosophy will appreciate the trilogy’s profound concepts interwoven with relatable narratives. The author’s mastery is evident in crafting a work that appeals to intellectual and emotional sensibilities alike.

Throughout the trilogy, Daniel’s transformation serves as a relatable and inspiring narrative. His evolution from a curious seeker hindered by cognitive biases to a self-aware individual confronting inner doubts resonates deeply with readers.

In a world valuing personal growth, camaraderie, service, purpose, and self-discovery, the Scotomaville Trilogy stands as proof of storytelling’s power to connect, inspire, and transform. Its pages offer lessons, insights, and reflections embracing the shared human experience, making it an essential read for individuals from all walks of life. In conclusion, the trilogy’s rich philosophical discussions, relatable character arcs, and insightful exploration of cognitive biases contribute significantly to the fields of psychology and personal development.

Please express any correlation between my list of strengths, and a robust list of human virtues. Analyze the union of the two for shared characteristics and a deeper meaning.

Certainly! Let’s look at the intersection between the specific strengths from the Clifton StrengthsFinder that you provided (Achiever, Input, Learner, Activator, Belief) and a traditional list of virtues such as wisdom, courage, humanity, justice, temperance, and transcendence.

ACHIEVER

Virtue Correlation: Courage, Justice

Explanation: Achievers have a constant drive for accomplishing tasks. This can correlate with the virtue of courage, which involves persistence and vitality, and justice, where hard work and fairness contribute to the overall good of the community.

INPUT

Virtue Correlation: Wisdom

Explanation: People with the Input strength have a craving to know more, collecting and archiving information. This resonates with wisdom, which is characterized by a pursuit of knowledge and insightful judgment.

LEARNER

Virtue Correlation: Wisdom, Humanity

Explanation: A constant desire to improve and learn aligns with the virtue of wisdom. It may also align with humanity if the learning is directed towards understanding others and improving social bonds.

ACTIVATOR

Virtue Correlation: Courage, Justice

Explanation: Activators are inclined to take action and want to make things happen. This aligns with courage, as it requires the boldness to initiate, and justice, where action may be directed towards equality and fairness.

BELIEF

Virtue Correlation: Transcendence, Justice

Explanation: The Belief strength is connected to core values and purpose. It aligns with transcendence, where there is a connection to something greater, and justice, where values often include fairness and equality.

Summary of Union (Intersection):

The union between these strengths and virtues reveals a strong emphasis on wisdom (through Input and Learner), courage (through Achiever and Activator), and justice (through Achiever, Activator, and Belief). The values of humanity and transcendence are also present but to a lesser extent.

This analysis suggests that a person with these strengths might be particularly well-suited for roles that require insightful judgment, bold action, and a strong sense of fairness and values. They may excel in leadership roles, educational fields, advocacy, or any area where wisdom, courage, and justice are paramount.

REVIEWS

Sarah Little-Turnbull

You know well of Sarah's talent. She designed the N-95 mask. She conceived of Halmark's tied ribbon bow, and CorningWare. She was a fabulous mentor.

"Daniel is a conceptual thinker who has the ability to implement his ideas with a spectrum of skills. His work represents a unique combination of abilities executed with reliability and great ingenuity. I recommend him very highly."

is known for his "Galloping Gourmet" television series and > 29 books. He's a charismatic facilitator of solutions for human indulgence.

"Daniel is continually creative. He has an excellent eye for light, form and texture and an ear for understanding his client's needs. Daniel is an unusual blend of Artist, Technician, Craftsman and Servant who can easily become a partner in your creative process."

Dean Rush

Dean has had distinguished military and business careers, and is the Author of Flying Free. "Daniel Comp is one of the most innovative people I have ever known. I've watched Daniel overcome great obstacles and stick to a vision of making a difference for people. He is personable and doesn't quit until the job is done. I highly recommend Daniel and his wife, Angelina."

2x Awarded by U.S. Small Business Administration, TV/Radio Host/Speaker, a fabulous business partner, wife and my best friend. "I've witnessed Daniel's evolution from a wounded, angry man into a mentally and emotionally mature gentleman. He leads other men with competence and confidence from his own transformation and experience."

Charlie Duke

"As an Astronaut (Apollo 16 Lunar Module Pilot & 10th man on the Moon). I was very familiar with powerful planes and rockets. I've learned to trust my life and business on great tools and competent people. Daniel and Angelina have put together an amazing system for small business that is technically advanced, yet doesn't take a rocket scientist to run it. I highly recommend their services - I didn't settle for anything less!"

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I'm deeply appreciative to those who have invested time, emotion and resources for me to devour. For the encouragement, mental support and feedback, thank you. You have been generous with interest, influence and guidance over decades. For those that journeyed before me, I am indebted to your bravery and demonstration of faith, perseverance and grit.

To all of you, I wish awareness and grace.

To Angelina Musik-Comp:

I am deeply grateful for your stamina, patience, and support as my best friend and business partner. We have traveled the curves together in good cheer. You are amazingly resilient and a joyful character to explore with. I am grateful for your gift of HEALING matching my expression of UNDERSTANDING!

To you, the reader, and participant:

When I imagined this project, I had a hunch the cost would be years of commitment - but not five years. What you might not imagine is that it took me far less time and angst to create the Wellness by Choice syndication, and the Scotomaville syndication of nearly twenty five thousand websites. And now we have AI.

I believe “The Greatest Expedition you will ever undertake is the journey to self-understanding, for the real voyage of discovery consists not in seeking new lands, but in seeing with new eyes.“. Fortunately AI still lacks subjective experiences, emotions, and self-reflective awareness - and thus our superpower of story-telling may yet be an error correcting trim-tab for super intelligent reasoning engines.

Cheers to YOUR Greatest Expedition!
