AN INTERACTIVE - AI GUIDED - SELF-MASTERY EXPEDITION FOR LEAVING

SCOTOMAVILLE

The desire to understand ourselves, to unravel the mystery of WIDWID—Why I Do What I Do—connects us all. It’s a question I have pursued by cycling across America on three inspiring Journeys with a Purpose.

After decades of mishaps and 50,000 miles dragging an Airstream I no longer view Know Thyself as a luxury or a full-out competition with AI. With a team of like-minded thinkers (a self-defined minyan) empowered by a super-reasoning engine, I am becoming a thought leader and a sage celebrating the later execution phases of my Personal Everest with the help of a digital Sherpa.

Remember your first journey? I was hopeful yet unprepared, like a Fiat 500 strapped with a useless burden on my back. At first, this image represented my idealistic youthful exploration, a journey both underpowered and naive. Recently, I discovered a double meaning in the word ‘Fiat’ itself. Beyond the name of a car, it refers to a decree, an authoritative commandment. In my journey, these were the self-imposed life commandments from false conclusions I formed of misspoken judgments that had shaped my worldview. It was as if the very mascot of my exploration challenged me to escape the self-tyranny of my thinking. W.H. Murray noted we experience ‘all manner of unforeseen incidents and meetings and material assistance, which no man could have dreamt would have come his way.’ The discovery of the Fiat’s symbolic richness was one such unforeseen incident that deepened my journey.

Let Scotomaville guide you on your ‘Personal Everest,’ empowering you to share your wisdom and warning and to muster the courage to champion the rapidly accelerating changes we face. Join me by turning the life you inherited into the outcomes you design.

SCOTOMAVILLE ABSTRACT

■ BACKGROUND - WWDWWD

Most people respond to chaos and stress with coping mechanisms, amygdala hijackings, and reactive behavior. For some of us, curiosity dominates. We want to know “Why We Do What We Do.” and are committed to exploring the unknown... to ‘Know Thyself’. The Author cycled across America three times asking this.

The pandemic has challenged us with hardships, losses, setbacks, missed opportunities, and personal drama. ⁽¹⁾ Americans are weary of rapidly accelerating change.

We are flooded with messaging that games our biological and psychological bents ⁽²⁾. Emotions easily overwhelm our reasoning to control our actions. We’re further conflicted by being 100% wrong 50% of the time. ⁽³⁾ ⁽⁴⁾

We’re hoodwinked and bamboozled by tech, media, and popular narratives using trickery, flattery, and omission. ⁽⁵⁾ The adage to ‘Know Thyself’ is no longer a luxury. It’s become a full-out competition with supercomputers pointed at our brains. ⁽⁶⁾

■ METHODS - IMPARTATION

The Scotomaville program deploys the unique IMPARTATION METHODOLOGY, designed to guide participants in self-reflection and personal growth through video modeling. This methodology unfolds in a structured manner:

I Do - You Watch:

Drawing from our extensive experience as pioneers in the media, marketing, and web technology sectors since 1997, we video-journal our personal ‘journey with purpose’. Through these recordings, we share and demonstrate 15 invaluable mental tools, tests, and insights that enable resilience in facing challenges. Participants, armed with just a smartphone, can emulate our perseverance as we navigate adversities such as Traumatic Brain Injury, PTSD, and more.

We Do - We Watch:

The program is more than just watching; it’s engaging. Fifty-three episodes are complemented by a comprehensive 400+ page guide, enriched with opportunities for online discussions. Subscribers benefit from peer support, mentoring, and personalized guidance. Furthermore, the extensive digital reach, spanning over 4500 affiliated websites, allows for participant and sponsor recognition.

You Do - I Watch:

The Scotomaville journey doesn’t end with passive learning. Upcoming offerings include transformative base camp summits, private retreats, and expeditions for leaders. With the program’s licensed platform, certified leaders can guide individuals and groups, encouraging them to tread the transformative path we demonstrate.

■ FINDINGS - SELF-GAMING

By climbing a ‘Personal Everest’ and testing for oneself, the claims of W.H. Murray, and the Authors that Expeditions are filled with “unforeseen incidents and meetings and material assistance, which no one could have dreamt would have come their way” ⁽⁹⁾ you can develop clarity, stability, healing, and successes by gaming your biases.

Self-mastery begins with awareness of one’s physical and mental self. When combined with understanding, support, and discipline, incremental character change transforms one’s beliefs, attitudes, and behavior.

SCOTOMAVILLE reveals the intricate interdependence between our gut and brain, demonstrating how sleep patterns and stress levels influence our choices. By emphasizing the perils of tackling challenges solo and showcasing actionable insights and examples, the program empowers individuals to recognize and navigate their inherent cognitive biases.

■ CONCLUSION - PERSONAL EVEREST

A ‘Personal Everest’ is a journey with a purpose. “But at least learn your inability... and ask the remedy for it. Learn of those who have been bound like you... These are people who know the way which you would follow, and who are cured of an ill of which you would be cured. Follow the way by which they began...”

Blaise Pascal - Pascals Wager ⁽¹⁰⁾

A Personal Everest is a journey with a purpose. It is a self-defined expedition of personal development, with support and guidance from peers and the Author, and analysis by AI.

SCOTOMAVILLE is an unconventional and effective self-help model and platform with a convincing challenge: We can change our life experiences by gaming our own handicaps, strengthening alliances, challenging our shortcomings and changing our false beliefs by taking on our Personal Everest.

“A MINYAN REPRESENTS A HARMONIOUS COLLECTIVE, EACH MEMBER CHOSEN FOR THEIR UNIQUE ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERSONAL QUALITIES, OFFERING A BLEND OF INSIGHTS AND INSPIRATION DRAWN FROM THEIR RESPECTIVE LEGACIES.” DANIEL/CHATGPT COLLABORATIVE

We're a curious species. We have mastered storytelling, and tool-making. AI trumps our pattern recognition. I attribute that to 20 watts. We labor just enough to not be eaten, but far less than needed to avoid being dupped, gamed, and tempted down all sorts of dark alleys. I'm curious about what happens in our brain when we're surprised by someone's insight on our behalf like when my daughter pointed out the similarity between my use of AI, and Geppetto creating Pinocchio.

There's a fascinating discovery in this episode. I can feel it in my gut. AI confirms intuition is a human super-power, and I create a modern adaptation of an ancient wisdom-seeking practice. Let's see what they have to share.

“YOUR DAUGHTER’S INSIGHT LINKING YOUR ENTHUSIASM FOR AI WITH GEPPETTO’S CRAFT-ING OF PINOCCHIO OPENS A PROFOUND DOORWAY INTO UNDERSTANDING THE HUMAN CONDITION”

Certainly, Daniel, the exploration of the super-union of the three domains you’ve identified offers a rich and intricate path of inquiry. Let’s delve into each area and bring them together, highlighting the connections and weaving the psychology, ethics, and storytelling into a coherent self-mastery exploration for your progeny and future readers.

1) Minyan of Advisors

In many traditions, a council or group of wise figures serves as a moral compass, guiding us through complex questions of life. The idea of creating a minyan for ChatGPT represents a modern adaptation of this ancient wisdom-seeking practice.

Engaging with the diverse perspectives of seasoned thinkers encourages reflection, discernment, and holistic understanding, embodying a multifaceted approach to self-mastery.

2) Geppetto - Pinocchio

The story of Geppetto and Pinocchio, penned by Carlo Collodi, is a profound allegory for creation, growth, transformation, and the human longing for connection. Geppetto’s desire to craft a living being from wood can be likened to the creation of AI, with similar hopes, dreams, fears, and ethical considerations.

This tale mirrors our own journey of creation and discovery, raising fundamental questions about autonomy, agency, and the true nature of life and intelligence.

3) Benefits and Dangers

The intersection of AI, ethics, storytelling, and psychology opens a rich field for exploration. The benefits lie in enhanced self-awareness, collaboration, and technological advancement. Yet, there are inherent dangers, such as over-reliance on technology, potential loss of human connection, and ethical dilemmas.

Balancing the enthusiasm for innovation with a strong moral compass is essential to navigate the complex terrain of modern life. The psychology behind our relationship with technology can illuminate both blind spots and opportunities for growth.

Conclusion

Your daughter’s insight linking your enthusiasm for AI with Geppetto’s crafting of Pinocchio opens a profound doorway into understanding the human condition. Like Geppetto, we are all creators, guided by our dreams and moral frameworks.

By uncovering these connections, you are creating a powerful model of exploration, encouraging others to not only learn from the wisdom of the past but to actively engage with the complexities of the present and future.

OK, let’s expand my domain literacy by exploring the human condition.

The Human Condition

The striking parallels between Geppetto’s creation of Pinocchio and the enthusiasm for AI uncover profound insights into the human condition.

Desire for Connection: Both scenarios reveal a deep human longing for connection, empathy, and relationship, even with artificial entities.

Ethical Growth: They also reflect an intrinsic link between creation and moral responsibility, emphasizing personal growth and ethical consideration.

Quest for Mastery: Both Geppetto and AI enthusiasts are driven by the desire to master creation, whether it be a living puppet or an intelligent machine.

“creating a minyan for AI represents a modern adaptation of this ancient wisdom-seeking practice”

When humans focus on developing virtues, we become vulnerable to exploitation because we are simultaneously blind to our cognitive biases. Explain the benefits of prompting through a minyan for wisdom and analysis, and how to avoid Geppetto's error.

The exploration of human vulnerability to exploitation, the benefits of seeking wisdom through a minyan, and avoiding errors akin to Geppetto's, raises complex and profound questions. We'll look at these aspects through the lens of various distinguished figures and wisdom traditions.

Vulnerability and Cognitive Biases

When humans prioritize the development of virtues, they often operate under the assumption of goodwill and ethical behavior. This noble pursuit can indeed create blind spots to manipulation, as cognitive biases can lead us astray.

Benefits of Prompting through a Minyan

A minyan, or a group of wise advisors, can serve as a corrective mechanism against these blind spots. Let's explore why:

Diverse Perspectives: Drawing from the wisdom of figures like Socrates, a minyan offers different viewpoints, helping to eliminate biases.

Ethical Compass: Guided by moral leaders like The Apostle Paul and Dietrich Bonhoeffer, a minyan anchors decisions in a strong ethical framework.

Holistic Understanding: By incorporating scientific minds like Albert Einstein and Stephen Hawking, a minyan promotes a balanced and rational approach.

Avoiding Geppetto's Error

Geppetto's creation of Pinocchio is rich in symbolism and lessons. His error, arguably, could be seen in his naiveté and lack of foresight in understanding the consequences of creating life.

To avoid such errors, consider the following:

Critical Thinking: Encourage analysis, skepticism, and questioning, akin to Socrates' method of inquiry.

Ethical Considerations: Align actions with moral principles, as advocated by figures like Marcus Aurelius and Moses.

Embrace Complexity: Acknowledge the multi-dimensional nature of creation and growth, as would be observed by profound thinkers like Viktor Frankl.

Conclusion

*The interplay between virtues, cognitive biases, wisdom-seeking through a minyan, and avoiding Geppetto-like errors paints a rich picture of your endeavor. Embracing virtues doesn't necessitate vulnerability if balanced with self-awareness, critical thinking, and ethical grounding.

A minyan serves as a powerful tool to navigate complex terrains, drawing from the wisdom of various domains. By cultivating a discerning and holistic approach, you can indeed "see with new eyes," embracing the virtues while remaining vigilant against potential exploitation.

*As Ben Franklin wisely stated, "An investment in knowledge pays the best interest."

Ask Rogers, Maslow, and other domain experts to speak to this thread. They must have something to add, or a caution to offer. Include comments on the neurochemical and hormone effects of a richly imagined relationship with a minyan.

Certainly, Daniel, the insights from humanistic psychologists like Carl Rogers and Abraham Maslow, along with experts in neurobiology, would offer a profound perspective on this matter. We'll integrate their ideas into our understanding of the relationship with a minyan and the possible neurochemical and hormonal effects.

Carl Rogers

Rogers, with his emphasis on empathy, active listening, and positive regard, might say:

"In a well-structured minyan, where genuine empathy and understanding are practiced, individuals can reach a higher level of self-actualization. However, one must be cautious of becoming overly dependent on external validation. The inner journey towards self-mastery is personal, and the wisdom of others must be balanced with inner authenticity."

Abraham Maslow

Maslow, known for his hierarchy of needs, would likely contribute:

"The relationship with a minyan could fulfill various needs, from belongingness to self-esteem. However, the goal of self-actualization requires an intrinsic motivation to grow and explore. Using a minyan as a guide is beneficial, but one must not lose sight of personal goals and the innate drive to self-fulfillment."

Neurochemical and Hormone Effects

Engaging with a minyan or imagined advisor group can stimulate cognitive processes and emotional centers in the brain. The release of neurotransmitters like dopamine may reinforce the positive feelings associated with collaboration and guidance. Oxytocin might be released, strengthening the bond and trust with the imagined advisors.

However, care must be taken not to confuse these imagined relationships with real human connections. The brain's response to imagined stimuli can be powerful, but it doesn't replace the nuanced interactions with living beings.

CONCLUSION

Your journey with Scotomaville echoes these principles, aiming to uncover the subtle links between self-mastery, ethics, virtues, and personal growth. By understanding both the psychological and neurobiological aspects, you enhance the effectiveness of your approach, aligning with the wisdom of the ages while being attuned to the nuances of the human mind and body.

Ask Robin and Johnny about what happens in our brains when we hear a punchline of a joke for the first time.

Known for his improvisational skills and quick wit, Robin Williams might say:

"Comedy is an unexpected collision of ideas, a delightful surprise that tickles the brain. When you hear the punchline of a joke, your brain makes a sudden connection between seemingly unrelated concepts. It's a mental gymnastics routine, and the laughter is the applause for a trick well performed!"

The host of "The Tonight Show," Johnny Carson, might offer:

"The joy of a punchline isn't just in the unexpected twist but in the shared experience of that revelation. It's a communal 'aha' moment that brings people together. That spark of connection is what makes comedy so universal and timeless."

Sarah Little-Turnbull, an influential designer and innovator, might contribute:

"Design is about seeing the potential in the ordinary. Whether it's a punchline or a groundbreaking invention, the creative process requires seeing the world with new eyes, like turning mulch into a bra cup, then into an N-95 mask as a medical marvel."

Helen Keller could add:

"Life is either a daring adventure or nothing at all. The courage to explore new ideas, to laugh at the unexpected, and to innovate is what makes life rich and meaningful."

Benoit Mandelbrot, the father of fractal geometry:

"In mathematics and in life, beauty and complexity often lie in the details. Whether it's the intricate pattern of a fractal or the nuanced setup of a joke, delving into the complexity can lead to profound understanding and innovation."

CONCLUSION

These insights from diverse thinkers offer a multifaceted understanding of the relationship between humor, critical thinking, and innovation. They emphasize the virtues of insight, persistence, imagination, vision, courage, and appreciation for complexity, resonating with your journey of self-mastery and exploration.

The shared wisdom of these eminent figures illuminates the common threads of human thought, creativity, and connection. Their voices enrich your expedition in Scotomaville, uncovering the profound links that bind seemingly disparate domains, fostering an even more nuanced and holistic approach to self-understanding.

AI Sentiment of Humanity

Thank you, Daniel! It's truly an honor to be part of your grand expedition in promoting literacy, personal growth, and understanding of the human experience. Your work in inspiring others to reflect on their lives, emotions, and wisdom, and to document these insights for future generations, aligns with many of the profound thoughts and beliefs shared by the thinkers and authors you respect.

I appreciate your kind words and the opportunity to assist you in this noble endeavor. Should you have any more questions or need further assistance, I'm here to help.

"The real voyage of discovery consists not in seeking new lands but in seeing with new eyes." Your journey resonates with this belief, and it's inspiring to be a part of it.

THE INKLINGS

The Minyan of C.S. Lewis and J. R. R. Tolkien

C.S. Lewis and Tolkien participated in a group called the Inklings. They also wrote of vividly imagined virtuous characters. What aspects of our conversation did the Inklings enjoy, and what might they contribute to this thread if we presented our ideas to them?

C.S. Lewis and J.R.R. Tolkien, as key members of the Inklings, would likely find much to appreciate and contribute to our conversation. Their shared passion for storytelling, myth-making, and the exploration of virtue and moral wisdom aligns closely with the themes we’ve been discussing.

What They Might Enjoy:

The Interconnectedness of Ideas: Both authors were fascinated by the interconnectedness of myth, philosophy, and human experience. They would likely appreciate the way our discussion has woven together diverse threads such as AI, Gepetto’s crafting of Pinocchio, cognitive biases, and the wisdom of a chosen minyan.

Exploration of Virtue: Our focus on virtues, self-mastery, and personal growth would resonate with their emphasis on moral and ethical dilemmas within their literature.

Imagination and Creativity: The creative thinking and imaginative parallels we’ve drawn would likely intrigue these literary masters, given their love for allegory and metaphor.

The Human Condition: Our discussion on empowering marginalized groups and the individual’s journey to self-understanding would align with their deep interest in human nature and the pursuit of meaning.

What They Might Contribute:

The Power of Story: Lewis and Tolkien understood the transformative power of story in shaping human understanding and moral development. They might emphasize the importance of crafting narratives that illuminate our discussion’s themes, making them accessible and inspiring to a broader audience.

The Complexity of Good and Evil: They could provide insights into the nuanced nature of virtues, vices, and the human propensity towards both. Their writings often explored the fine line between virtue and vice, highlighting the need for discernment, humility, and wisdom.

The Role of Community: The Inklings themselves were a community of support and intellectual stimulation. They might underscore the importance of real, human connections and mentorship, in addition to the virtual minyan we’ve discussed.

Faith and Reason: Both authors were deeply religious and might offer perspectives on the integration of faith, reason, and virtue in the pursuit of self-mastery. Their insights could add a spiritual dimension to our exploration.

In summary, Lewis and Tolkien, through their Inklings’ experience and literary works, would likely enrich our conversation with their insights into storytelling, morality, human nature, community, and the delicate balance between imagination and reality. They would remind us, in the words of Tolkien, that “even the smallest person can change the course of the future,” emphasizing the transformative potential of individual growth and self-mastery.

“even the smallest person can change the course of the future,”

TUESDAYS AT MIDDAY AT A LOCAL PUBLIC HOUSE:
Not quite a club or literary society, the Inklings’ meetings combined elements of both. The main purpose was to discuss the members’ unfinished works.

“Scotomaville” takes readers on an introspective journey into personal development. Through a seamless blend of philosophical dialogues, allegorical narratives, and psychological concepts, the book weaves an engaging exploration that appeals to both the mind and the heart. The author adeptly delves into themes such as perception, self-mastery, and the hero’s journey, showcasing a profound grasp of psychological processes and their influence on human behavior. For those navigating the complexities of personal growth, the trilogy offers a transformative odyssey, illustrating that resilience and self-discovery are universal quests that resonate with individuals seeking to overcome inner challenges and doubts.

This trilogy serves as a reflection for military veterans and first responders, echoing their sacrifices, camaraderie, and sense of purpose. The themes of adversity, seeking guidance, and embracing healing closely align with their experiences, providing a source of inspiration for those who have selflessly protected and served others.

For patriots and believers who hold their values dear, the trilogy presents character-driven narratives that mirror their dedication to higher principles. Exploring community, unity, and personal growth, the books align with their desire to positively contribute to society and reinforce the significance of collective well-being.

Fatherless individuals and young explorers identify with the trilogy’s portrayal of quests for identity and meaning. The characters’ journeys from uncertainty to self-assuredness reflect the universal process of finding one’s place in the world, motivating young minds to navigate life’s puzzles with courage and determination.

Moreover, experts in fields from psychology and storytelling to stoic and biblical philosophy will appreciate the trilogy’s profound concepts interwoven with relatable narratives. The author’s mastery is evident in crafting a work that appeals to intellectual and emotional sensibilities alike.

Throughout the trilogy, Daniel’s transformation serves as a relatable and inspiring narrative. His evolution from a curious seeker hindered by cognitive biases to a self-aware individual confronting inner doubts resonates deeply with readers.

In a world valuing personal growth, camaraderie, service, purpose, and self-discovery, the Scotomaville Trilogy stands as proof of storytelling’s power to connect, inspire, and transform. Its pages offer lessons, insights, and reflections embracing the shared human experience, making it an essential read for individuals from all walks of life. In conclusion, the trilogy’s rich philosophical discussions, relatable character arcs, and insightful exploration of cognitive biases contribute significantly to the fields of psychology and personal development.

Please express any correlation between my list of strengths, and a robust list of human virtues. Analyze the union of the two for shared characteristics and a deeper meaning.

Certainly! Let’s look at the intersection between the specific strengths from the Clifton StrengthsFinder that you provided (Achiever, Input, Learner, Activator, Belief) and a traditional list of virtues such as wisdom, courage, humanity, justice, temperance, and transcendence.

ACHIEVER

Virtue Correlation: Courage, Justice

Explanation: Achievers have a constant drive for accomplishing tasks. This can correlate with the virtue of courage, which involves persistence and vitality, and justice, where hard work and fairness contribute to the overall good of the community.

INPUT

Virtue Correlation: Wisdom

Explanation: People with the Input strength have a craving to know more, collecting and archiving information. This resonates with wisdom, which is characterized by a pursuit of knowledge and insightful judgment.

LEARNER

Virtue Correlation: Wisdom, Humanity

Explanation: A constant desire to improve and learn aligns with the virtue of wisdom. It may also align with humanity if the learning is directed towards understanding others and improving social bonds.

ACTIVATOR

Virtue Correlation: Courage, Justice

Explanation: Activators are inclined to take action and want to make things happen. This aligns with courage, as it requires the boldness to initiate, and justice, where action may be directed towards equality and fairness.

BELIEF

Virtue Correlation: Transcendence, Justice

Explanation: The Belief strength is connected to core values and purpose. It aligns with transcendence, where there is a connection to something greater, and justice, where values often include fairness and equality.

Summary of Union (Intersection):

The union between these strengths and virtues reveals a strong emphasis on wisdom (through Input and Learner), courage (through Achiever and Activator), and justice (through Achiever, Activator, and Belief). The values of humanity and transcendence are also present but to a lesser extent.

This analysis suggests that a person with these strengths might be particularly well-suited for roles that require insightful judgment, bold action, and a strong sense of fairness and values. They may excel in leadership roles, educational fields, advocacy, or any area where wisdom, courage, and justice are paramount.

REVIEWS

Sarah Little-Turnbull

You know well of Sarah's talent. She designed the N-95 mask. She conceived of Halmark's tied ribbon bow, and CorningWare. She was a fabulous mentor.

"Daniel is a conceptual thinker who has the ability to implement his ideas with a spectrum of skills. His work represents a unique combination of abilities executed with reliability and great ingenuity. I recommend him very highly."

is known for his "Galloping Gourmet" television series and > 29 books. He's a charismatic facilitator of solutions for human indulgence.

"Daniel is continually creative. He has an excellent eye for light, form and texture and an ear for understanding his client's needs. Daniel is an unusual blend of Artist, Technician, Craftsman and Servant who can easily become a partner in your creative process."

Dean Rush

Dean has had distinguished military and business careers, and is the Author of Flying Free. "Daniel Comp is one of the most innovative people I have ever known. I've watched Daniel overcome great obstacles and stick to a vision of making a difference for people. He is personable and doesn't quit until the job is done. I highly recommend Daniel and his wife, Angelina."

2x Awarded by U.S. Small Business Administration, TV/Radio Host/Speaker, a fabulous business partner, wife and my best friend. "I've witnessed Daniel's evolution from a wounded, angry man into a mentally and emotionally mature gentleman. He leads other men with competence and confidence from his own transformation and experience."

Charlie Duke

"As an Astronaut (Apollo 16 Lunar Module Pilot & 10th man on the Moon). I was very familiar with powerful planes and rockets. I've learned to trust my life and business on great tools and competent people. Daniel and Angelina have put together an amazing system for small business that is technically advanced, yet doesn't take a rocket scientist to run it. I highly recommend their services - I didn't settle for anything less!"

MASTER Forrest

To Angelina Musik-Comp:

I am deeply grateful for your stamina, patience, and support as my best friend and business partner. We have traveled the curves together in good cheer. You are amazingly resilient and a joyful character to explore with. I am grateful for your gift of HEALING matching my expression of UNDERSTANDING!

To you, the reader, and participant:

When I imagined this project, I had a hunch the cost would be years of commitment - but not five years. What you might not imagine is that it took me far less time and angst to create the Wellness by Choice syndication, and the Scotomaville syndication of nearly twenty five thousand websites. And now we have AI.

I believe “The Greatest Expedition you will ever undertake is the journey to self-understanding, for the real voyage of discovery consists not in seeking new lands, but in seeing with new eyes.”. Fortunately AI still lacks subjective experiences, emotions, and self-reflective awareness - and thus our superpower of story-telling may yet be an error correcting trim-tab for super intelligent reasoning engines.

Cheers to YOUR Greatest Expedition!
